VENICE SEWER BREAK at the intersection of Third and Hampden streets has resulted in a large hole caused by the street caving in. A Venice motorist who knew the barricade was there wrecked his car at 9:45 p.m. Tuesday when he had to choose between hitting the barricade or an auto; the other driver apparently did not see the fence at night. The motorist pointed out that there have been no warning lights or painted markers to call attention to the barricade.

Venice catching GC in number of its sewer breaks

A plea for additional federal funds to help the city cope with mounting number of sewer line breaks was pronounced by Venice Mayor William "Mike" Elerswold Tuesday night after City Council members were informed that two new breaks, both of major proportions, have developed.

The most recent breaks bring to 16 the total number of sewer breaks occurring in Venice since the 1973 spring flooding. Most of these have developed over the past six months.

Granite City's sewer break total during the same period is 29.

Venice Street Superintendent Jay Maurer told the Venice council during its regular meeting Tuesday that the new breaks are located at Third and Hampden streets and in the alley near Second street between Abbott and Granville streets.

Maurer said the Third and Hampden break is the most serious of the two, interrupting the sewage flow from residences along Filmore, Jefferson, Lincoln and

Hope to tighten up massive public aid

The massive scope of the public aid program in this county and region has been cited in discussions between Illinois Department of Public Aid staff members and the IHFA director, Joel Edelman.

A total of 80,597 persons received some type of public assistance in the seven-county Belleville region in December 1973 at a total cost of $8,754,236 for the month, including 20,471 Madison County residents receiving $2,257,913.

Of the 80,597 in the region, 61,744 received Aid to Families with Dependent Children in this category, 14,899 Madison County recipients were paid $1,497,599.

Another 6,895 in the region were sent Aid to Aged, Blind and Disabled and were transferred to the Federal Supplemental Security Income Program on Jan. 1, 1974. The Madison County breakdown for December 1973 shows 2,021 sent $411,673.

A total of 6,862 persons in Madison, Bond, Clinton, Monroe, Randolph, St. Clair and Washington Counties had enough income to meet daily living expenses but required Medical Assistance (Medicaid).

Also, 5,696 in the region received General Assistance from local-level government units, primarily townships.

A total of 19,748 regional households and 63,906 persons participated in the Food Stamp Program in January 1974. For Madison County, 5,712 households and 18,232 people were served.

PUBLIC AID COSTS AND BENEFITS have been discussed by members of Welfare Services Committees and representatives of social welfare and related agencies from a 7-county area at a joint meeting with Illinois Director of Public Aid Joel Edelman. He reported that crackdown on ineligible welfare cases together with grant reductions are saving taxpayers more

Plan drainage for Parkview Estates

Correction of serious drainage problems in the Parkview Estates and Harrison Avenue areas of Nameoki Township will be attempted as a health project under action taken Monday night by the Nameoki Town Board and the Township Board of Health.

In separate actions, the town board approved a resolution authorizing the board of health to contract for health services necessary to abate nuisances, and the health board, in turn, voted to retain an engineering firm to design a drainage system for the Parkview Estates area.

Supervisor Louis Whitsell noted that $27,000 has been included in the township's federal revenue sharing budget for the Board of Health to be used in the "abatement of health nuisances." In this way, he said, the drainage problems can be attacked as a health project rather than a drainage project.

Under present laws, Whitsell explained, townships cannot use funds for drainage improvements.

The Board of Health, which consists of Whitsell, Town Clerk Douglas Teator and Assessor Carl Macios, met immediately after Monday night's Town Board meeting and agreed to retain Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab, Granite City engineers, to plan a drainage line and outlet for the Parkview Estates area.

Plans for improvements on Harrison Avenue will await acquisition of easements that would be necessary to construct a drainage line in that area, Whitsell said.

At the same time, the health board also decided to handle the township's environmental cleanup program with a $30,000 appropriation in revenue sharing money by employing truck operators to pick up limbs and trash that has accumulated while employees of the township highway department have been on strike. The Board of Health also appointed Robert Davis as township rabies control officer to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Bob Reisinger who has moved out of the township.

The health board authorized Teator to take charge of the township's mosquito abatement program.

During the Town Board meeting, Township Attorney Nick Vassileff was instructed to proceed with suits challenging the legality of the annexation by Granite City of the Maryville School and Grigsby Junior High School sites. Both suits have been pending since 1968.

In response to a request by the Granite City Park District to purchase a sprayer unit that no longer is used by the township, the board agreed to let the park district use the unit to determine if it is satisfactory. If it can be used, the park district and the township would agree on a purchase price later. The unit was inadequate for township use and has been in storage.

Oppose loss of SIUE autonomy at meet today

A resolution adopted following a public hearing today indicated the possibility of some wavering from earlier indications that the SIUE board will downgrade the two campus presidents and vest extensive power in the office of "chief of board staff."

On a motion by Board Trustee Margaret Blackshear of Madison, it was voted that "the board establish a procedure to suggest any revision in the basic document it deems necessary to ensure maximum autonomy of each university within the SIUE system."

campus "unquestionably has prospered from its historic ties to the Carbondale campus—the Motherland, as it were, that founded a colony far to the north."

But the campus here has reached a stage of development wherein academic colonialism is no longer profitable.

"We believe the time has come for the board of trustees to grant Edwardsville commonwealth status in order that the campus may more fully serve the needs of its service area and those of the state."

Gene D. Allsup, associate professor of the schools of education and humanities at SIUE, also spoke as a senior faculty member.

"The fundamental problem which we identify is the incongruity of role perceptions among the board, the administration and the faculty."

"Out of this has evolved many problems, foremost of which is a sense of frustration witnessed among members of our

Pact with Venice non-faculty staff

The Venice Board of Education and Building Services Employees Local 98 agreed verbally to a two-year wage agreement Monday night, setting a retroactive 30 cents per hour blanket increase for 1973-74 and a 30 cents per hour raise in 1974-75.

Custodians, cooks, secretaries and teacher aides all will receive the same 20-30 cents hourly increase.

At the special meeting Monday, the board also passed a resolution authorizing the previously settled wage increases for Venice teachers.

The 1973-74 teachers' agreement calls for across-the-board raises of $200 in the salary schedule, plus a $200 lump sum payment, and a 6 1/2 percent overall increase under the 1974-75 pact.

An additional $200 cost of living payment next year is not considered part of the salary schedule.

In the Local 98 settlement, five custodians making $9.95 per hour will receive $1.15 under the present year's pact and $4.45 in 1974-75. A halitum matron earning $3.60 per hour also will get the 20 and 30 cent per hour increases.

Under the 1973-74 agreement, a head cook will make $2.77 hourly wage and $3.17 next year. Three other cooks will receive $2.75 per hour retroactively this year and $3.05 next year.

Seven teacher aides making $2.10 per hour also will get the 20 cent pay increase in 1973-74 and

Urban may be left off ballot

Possible disqualification of a large number of Illinois candidates in next November's general election—including at least one candidate for county office in Madison County—loomed today because of a technicality in a 1972 ethics law.

The office of County Clerk Eulalia Hotz said a check of nominees for County Board posts—who also are subject to the November election—will be made next week to determine if any of those candidates failed to comply with the report requirement.

Miss Hotz said she expects either the Republican or Democratic party will file a suit to challenge the ruling.

There were reports that

Strong opposition to over-centralization of Southern Illinois University administrative procedures was voiced today at a hearing conducted in the SIUE University Center ballroom by the SIUE Board of Trustees prior to a monthly board meeting.

About 200 persons were present to speak or listen during the two-hour public hearing.

A board majority has moved to tighten control over the Edwardsville and Carbondale campuses through a third administrative structure, the board staff, headed by Dr. James Brown, staff chief.

Today's hearing was scheduled to permit faculty and student groups and others affected by the change to relay their views verbally and in writing to the trustees. Early testimony today indicated that many at both SIUE and SIUC oppose the centralization plan.

Fears were voiced over the prospect of an excessive loss of autonomy in operation of the two campuses, which are situated 100 miles apart.

They are governed by a single board, and its board staff has been criticized as the largest and costliest such body in Illinois higher education.

One of today's witnesses, Professor Francis T. Zillemain, a senior faculty member at SIUE, said that the local

Ted Berger buys store

A new downtown Granite City Hardware store will open next month at 1918 Delmar Ave. in the building vacated earlier this month by Schermer Essen Hardware.

The new store will be owned and operated by Ted Berger who formerly was manager of the Schermer Essen Hardware stores in downtown Granite City and at Pontoon Beach before these interests were acquired by the Essen operation in 1969.

Berger left here at the time of the ownership change and since has been engaged in sales activities, he said. He had represented the Schermer Essen firm for 21 years.

Remodeling work is under way with an opening expected in early July. Berger said a definite opening date will be announced later.

In addition to a complete line of hardware supplies, the new store will feature a bargain basement, Berger noted.

Uniform county employee pay, benefits proposed

A wide assortment of business occupied the Madison County Board at its June session, scheduled for and held Tuesday morning. When it was discovered that law required the June meeting to be held Monday, board members assembled briefly Monday evening and then recessed until Tuesday.

The board decided to ask elected county officials to meet with its Personnel Committee, which has negotiated a fringe benefits and salary package with those county employees who are under the board's control.

Employees of elected officials are not covered, and the meeting is intended to explore extending it to them. Action on the agreement itself with State-County-Municipal Employees Local 795 was delayed Tuesday.

Personnel Chairman Wayne Bridgewater said some elected officials opposed a single contract for courthouse workers as infringing on the duties and rights of their offices. Board members cite the opinion that uniformity would be advantageous.

The board provided $1,600 for an Illinois Law Enforcement Commission program to handle appeals of cases handled by the county state's attorney. Reduced workload with a $10,000 yearly saving was predicted.

A move to have Madison County celebrate Memorial Day on the last Monday in May of each year was tabled. The state currently is considering repeal of its May 30 law.

Elimination of board members' meeting pay, with $2 to be paid $6,000 salary yearly and the chairman $15,000, was submitted for study. Chairman Nelson Hagnauer currently receives $10,000 and the other members receive per diem pay.

Under the plan by James Heil, board members would be penalized financially for "unexcused" absences exceeding two board sessions and 12 committee meetings a year.

Discussing the St. Clair County Board's salary system, Hagnauer said, "The St. Clair board chairman told me he had people on his board he hadn't seen for seven months at a time."

Post 307 held hitless

The Venice-Madison American Legion baseball team was shutout 4-0 in Lee Park here Wednesday by East St. Louis. Host Post 307 was held to no hits.

The visitors scored two runs in each of the second and seventh innings, totaling six hits, and made no errors.

The loss gives Post 307 a 0-3 record.

$236 RADIO STOLEN

A citizen band radio valued at $236 was taken from the auto of Vernon Ryan, 4577 Warnock Ave., between 7:30 a.m. and 4:25 p.m. Tuesday while it was parked at Granite City Steel's Blast Furnace lot, it was reported by the owner.

CLOCKS STOLEN

Two clocks and two wall speakers were taken before 11:30 a.m. Tuesday in a burglary at Grigley Junior High School, 3801 Cargill Road, it was reported by Charles Weiss, the school's principal. Entry was gained by breaking a window.

HOUSE BURGLARY

Joe Ottinger, 1419 Fifth St., Madison, reported to police at 9:05 a.m. Wednesday that a watch valued at $150 and tools worth $25 were taken from his home. The theft was believed to have occurred while Ottinger was visiting friends in the hospital.

PLEADS GUILTY

Kevin Watson Cagle, 20, of 1242 Robin St., Venice, pleaded guilty to a charge of unlawful possession of cannabis and received one year probation, following his arrest at 12:10 p.m. Wednesday. Cagle appeared before Judge William Johnson at 3:30 p.m.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

Dennis Reagan, 17, of 1422a Iowa St., was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 3:35 p.m. Wednesday, after he was knocked unconscious in an auto accident. Reagan's car and one driven by Louis Walszewski, St. Louis, collided at Federal Aid Route 151 and Rock Road.

RANSACK OFFICE

Burglars failed to take anything of value from J&M Motors, 2219 Namecki Road, after ransacking the office between 9 p.m. Monday and 8 a.m. Tuesday. Entry was gained by forcing a window.

RED FOX (Vulpes fulva)

The red fox is dog-like in appearance, with an elongated, pointed muzzle. Its large pointed ears are usually erect and it has a long, heavily furred, bushy tail and long, thick body fur that is reddish-yellow in appearance. The average fox is from 35 to 45 inches long and weighs eight to 15 pounds. Males are larger than females. The fox prefers borders of Illinois' forested areas and adjacent open lands. Most of the year he has no special home, but he uses a den during the breeding season. Foxes give short yaps or barks followed by a single squall, and also emit long yells, yowls, screams and chuffs. They are basically nocturnal but also come out in daylight, often traveling the same routes which may become worn into trails. When food is plentiful they rarely travel more than a mile in any direction, but may move five or 10 miles when food is scarce. They can attain speeds of up to 25 miles per hour and feed primarily on rats, mice and rabbits. The fur is commercially important, and man is their biggest predator, though dogs and coyotes have been known to kill foxes.

Speed trap radio warnings not as effective; state using new 'guns'

The trucker and his citizen's band radio: it's a two-way street, according to Maj. Albert Hinds, of the Illinois State Police.

For example, "Over-the-Road" may be able to warn a fellow trucker about an approaching speed trap. He may also contact state police, via the same radio, when he observes a motorist weaving all over the highway or when he is first to arrive at the scene of an accident.

"This whole thing about truckers warning one another about an impending speed trap has, in all probability, been overpublicized," said Maj. Hinds. "It does happen, sure, but we are also getting as much help from them as we are hindered by them."

With the recent emphasis on the 55 miles-per-hour speed limit, much has been written of problems caused by the truckers and their radios. They are—and always have been—warning each other of approaching traps, Maj. Hinds says, but it's really not that easy to do.

"About the time that the energy crisis arose, the Department of Law Enforcement purchased 35 speed detecting devices, more commonly known as speed guns," he said. "It is very hard to detect these hand-held, small devices."

The State Police also are using detective—or "unmarked"—cars to detect speeders, as well as the standard "vascar" and airplane methods.

Speed detecting assignments for the 1,600 state policemen in Illinois (excluding the toll roads) are done on a selective basis, according to Maj. Hinds. "Assignments are made on the basis of three-year accident records and predictions made from it," he said.

"Each of the 16 districts receives a print-out of this information, and assignments are made accordingly."

Although Maj. Hinds believes that the problem with the truckers and their radio may have been "overplayed," he points out that this does not mean that there have been fewer arrests.

"We are still being stringent in enforcing the speed limit," he said. "We are making more arrests than before the new limit went into effect."

The truckers were warning each other about the radar devices before the energy crisis.

"It's just a little more dramatic now," the state police official said. "Also, many motorists believe the energy crisis is easing up now and so they're putting their foot down a little harder on the gasoline pedal."

There is nothing illegal about having a radio in a truck. In fact, they are considered a "good" tool for the trucker, Maj. Hinds comments. "I'd say a great deal of the large truckers, especially those traveling across the country, have them," he said. "In fact, if I were a trucker, I'd have one."

But as far as using them to warn each other about approaching state policemen, that's a different story to the major, who believes enforcement of existing laws is essential until whatever time they are repealed.

while that legislation to correct the problem will be presented to the General Assembly in Springfield to resolve the problem.

In St. Clair County, 16 candidates for county offices were in jeopardy of having their names removed from the November ballot because of the requirement.

Virtually all candidates filed financial statements prior to the March 19 statewide primary election, which also included nomination of county board members, but some apparently did not know about filing a second statement before April 30.

According to Miss Hotz's office, Mrs. Carol Frederick, Republican nominee for county treasurer, also failed to file the statement, but she has announced she will withdraw from the race.

"We have observed numerous changes in the top administrative, serious conflicts at that level, and no settled continuity of purpose and authority."

The additional administrative layer between the presidents and the board will force them to engage in political gambits that can only be counter-productive and utterly removed from the vital interests and competencies of the faculties."

Support for centralization also was voiced.

Dr. John Hooker, president of the Graduate Council at Carbondale, said that "having this new executive officer would give clear lines of authority and enable prompt decisions."

"It also would reduce total administrative costs within the system and allow the university to concentrate its efforts on the system as a whole."

Dr. Rosemary Archangel, president of the University Senate at SIUE, said, "The people are very disappointed that the communities of the university were not consulted prior to the proposition."

She said the centralization plan is contrary to the idea of economy.

"It is increasing the cost of decision making," she contended.

Public aid

Job placement representatives in the Belleville region placed 3,478 public aid recipients in jobs for a monthly saving of $831,684 from the start of this effort in April 1972 through December 1973.

Director Edelman has informed department employees and the public that this agency is making significant progress in efforts to control welfare caseloads and improve services to needy persons.

Currently making a statewide "good will" tour, he said he hopes to spark interest in aid programs and to interpret key issues that are facing the department in upcoming months. He commented here:

"Illinois clearly is beginning to turn the corner on welfare growth. During the past year, we experienced the first caseload decreases in seven years.

"The next 12 to 18 months will be critical in the Department of Public Aid's efforts to 'put our house in order'.

"We believe we can control costs while improving benefits and services for the state's most needy residents. But the problems facing the agency are complex. We must have community support to get the job done."

Edelman and other top officials of the Department of Public Aid have met with legislators and members of Welfare Services Committees from the state's seven-county Belleville region.

The committees, established by Illinois law, are composed of citizens who act as community advisors to county departments of public aid. Representatives of various social welfare agencies and related organizations were present.

Subjects covered included:

- Plans to improve services to recipients.
- The consolidated standard plan of payments (flat grant) instituted for Illinois' 200,000 welfare families last fall.

The transfer of approximately 118,000 aged, blind and disabled cases to the new Supplemental Security Income program in January, and the state's continuing responsibilities for these cases.

Efforts to control rapidly increasing costs for medical assistance.

The department's self-support programs which resulted directly or indirectly in employment for 24,000 public aid recipients in 1973.

And the crackdown on ineligible welfare cases which has resulted to date in removal of 10,982 cases and grant reductions in 9,611 additional cases for a monthly saving of more than $3.6 million.

Edelman said he is pleased about the move of the St. Clair County office into new quarters at 300 N. 9th St., East St. Louis. He said the new office will facilitate improvement of services to St. Clair recipients.

After the move is completed, an appropriate ceremony will be announced and interested persons will be given an opportunity to visit the new facility.

Edelman has released the Public Aid Department's anual report for 1973. He noted a 9.4 per cent increase in benefits for the average welfare family in Illinois last year due to implementation of flat grants.

More than 61,000 persons receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) live in the seven-county region, he pointed out.

At the same time, Edelman said, it has been necessary for the agency to take concerted action to cut ineligible cases and correct payment errors. He explained:

"Federal regulations require that we reduce our present rate of 11.7 per cent ineligible AFDC cases to no more than 3 per cent by July 1975.

"This must be done in three stages—cutting the ineligible rate by one-third in each six-month period between now and our deadline—or we stand to lose substantial federal funds.

"This is not a simple task. Welfare payments in all major states currently are battling the problem of ineligibility an error in efforts to meet federal standards.

"These problems did not appear overnight—they were created by a series of socioeconomic pressures, conflicting national policies, inadequate staffing and other outside factors. Now we must try to correct the mistakes and get about the business of serving people."

"We plan to reallocate our staff in 1974—to get more workers in local offices to provide direct service to recipients. This will enable us to improve procedures for determining the eligibility of applicants and permit more personal contact with AFDC

Power dividend

Illinois Power Co. declared a 10th consecutive quarterly dividend on the firm's common stock Wednesday. The action was taken by the firm's board of directors, which declared a dividend of 85 cents per share on the common stock of the company. In taking this action, the board also expressed its intention to continue this level.

Board members also declared regular quarterly dividends of 31 cents to $1.03 per share on various cumulative preferred stock.

The dividends are all payable Aug. 1 to stockholders of record on July 10.

Home visits will be re-instituted on a wide scale. We also will concentrate on development of social services and employment-related services to help reduce or eliminate dependency.

"These are ambitious and essential efforts. That's why we are visiting communities to explain our plans and seek the support of legislators and Welfare Services Committees."

Leona Franklin, director of the department's Belleville regional office, has hosted discussions in the region. Miss Franklin said she and her staff will hold further meetings with citizens in coming months to keep them informed of progress and discuss possible solutions to welfare problems in the seven counties.

Venice sewers

excavations to reach the collapsed lines.

Venice has spent approximately $150,000 on repairs thus far. Engineers estimated that if the city were to attempt to make immediate repairs at the sites of all breaks, the cost could run as high as $500,000. The city has received $25,000 in federal flood disaster aid. City officials said they hope additional grants will be made on the basis of applications made earlier this year.

Council members approved a suggestion that another new pump be purchased by the street department, and Ebersold instructed Benjamin Honorable, the city's civilian defense director, to determine if federal funds can be obtained for this purpose.

Ebersold said he will schedule a meeting with Honorable, Maurer and engineers to determine further steps that will be necessary to meet the sewer break problem.

Other sewer breaks include sites between Main Street and the railroad tracks, in Oriole Street north of Broadway, in the alley between Robin and Oriole streets, behind Venice Home stores, and on the east side of Klein Street between Washington and Jefferson.

Maurer said that in virtually all instances the problems can be met, at least temporarily, by pass pumping.

Pumping operations could present a problem, however, in periods of heavy rains because Venice sewers are combined with the railroad tracks, in Oriole Street, and a heavy runoff of stormwater could overload pumping capacity.

News notes

Gov. Dan Walker said this week he is "opposed to regional government." He conceded that the Department of Local Government Affairs "is trying to bring about common boundaries for existing regional programs."

Local governments could lose millions of dollars of federal funds if these steps are not taken.

Illinois Agriculture Director R. Williams said yesterday rain and cool weather have damaged 600,000 acres of Illinois corn and could cost growers up to $300 million.

Traffic fatalities decreased in May for the fifth straight month, bringing the Illinois figure to 660, compared to 866 in January-May 1973. Monthly totals in that order are 152 (174), 101 (103), 138 (206) and 147 (182). There were traffic deaths in 45 of the 102 counties in May, compared to 48 fatalities in Madison County.

Voter registration will be conducted at Schermers' Market in Madison from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday, June 20. Registration also is set for Friday, June 21, at four locations—Granite City Trust & Savings Bank, 47 p.m.; Kroger's Market, 7 p.m.; National Bank in Madison, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.; and Venice Grocery on Broadway, noon-7 p.m.

Proposed federal land use regulation was killed in the U.S. House of Representatives yesterday, apparently for the remainder of this session.

Wheat fungus damage is expected to total $24 million in Illinois and Missouri, with over 10 cent of the wheat crop at Madison County farms affected.

Illinois construction driver strike talks held Friday and Saturday resumed Tuesday and yesterday at Springfield, with a deadlock developing in efforts to settle the 11-day-old stoppage of building projects in most of the state, including Madison County.

Vernon Brave said he doubts there will be any more meetings this week. About 4,000 Teamsters in Central and Southern Illinois and contractor groups are in disagreement over pay.

Setbacks start Post 113 league campaign

Granite City Post 113 opened its 20-game American Legion Baseball League schedule this week with back-to-back losses, 8-1 at Collinsville Tuesday and 5-4 in eight innings yesterday at Edwardsville at Wilson Park.

The local nine played flawless baseball for seven innings against Edwardsville, but then helped the visitors' victory with two errors in the eighth.

Granite City, trailing 4-0 in the opening inning, cut the enemy lead in half in the first when Larry Petri drew a walk and scored on a triple by Paul Muhlshil and Muhlshil tallied the centerfielder, trying to throw him out at third, threw the ball into the dugout.

Post 113 tied it in the fourth. Mike Gagich singled. Ray Smith, attempting a sacrifice bunt, reached base by a throwing error. Both scored on a single to center by Petri.

Smith started on the mound and was relieved in the fifth by Bill Dickinson, who held the enemy scoreless until the eighth.

Edwardsville's Vince Alaria reached base on a fielding error and advanced to third on a throwing error, in a doubleplay attempt after a flyball by a teammate. He scored on Bruce Pfeiffer's single.

On Tuesday, Collinsville scored three runs in the first, two in the third and three in the sixth while Mike Schaeffer allowed Post 113 to score only in the fourth.

Mike Stanton, Greg Linhart and Brett Chapman led the Post 113 when they entered a walk. Terrell and Kirk Champion shared pitching duty, the latter relieving in the fifth.

Collecting hits in both columns, Post 113 scored two runs, Muhlshil two, Stanton two, Brett Champion two, and one each by Jim Kafka, Bill Carr and Gagich.

Southpaw John Scott will start for Post 113 in a 6 p.m. game at Highland today.

Post 113 then will play host to Gillespie at 6 p.m. tomorrow at Wilson Park and will take on Venice-Madison Post 307 at Lee Park in Venice at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Impressive performance by initial Steeler spring athletic teams

STEELER RECORDHOLDER - Sophomore track and field star Bob Sampson not only was North's lone state qualifier, but he also topped the team in most first-place finishes during the season with eight, one a new pole vault record (14-1) at the South High Invitational.

MOST TENNIS WINS were posted this season by Steeler Paul Cooke. The senior tennis player compiled a 10-5 overall record and advanced to the singles semifinals of the GCHS South district meet.

'Roadrunners' at Coolidge

What are you if you run 1,150 laps around a girls' gym? If you attend Coolidge Junior High school, you would be called a Coolidge "Roadrunner."

Several girls started running during March and those who completed 50 miles during the spring received emblems.

Top "roadrunners" are Karen Hornback, who chalked up 72 miles, and Cheryl Hutchins, 64 miles.

Those who completed 50 or more miles also included Jackie

Bilello, Gay Maxwell, Jan Purkey, Susan Range, Kit Walsley, Laura Sikora, Bonnie Luebbert and Lori Taylor.

Purdue degree

Paul A. Steinhauer, 1615 Lindell Blvd., graduated this spring in a class of 3,922 at Purdue University's 122nd commencement at West Lafayette, Ind. He received a bachelor degree in chemical engineering.

The Steelers of Granite City High School North participated in their first-ever spring sports program—baseball, track, tennis, golf—and proved to area competitors that they have the capabilities to be right in the thick of things next year.

North's baseball squad showed considerable prowess in the 1974 season by posting a 9-13 record which included victories over some of the top teams in the area—Madison, Belleville West, Mascoutah, Trenton Weaslin, Belleville Alhaff, McClellan North and Collinsville.

The team's 14 junior and nine senior players amassed an impressive first-year record.

They garnered 146 hits and 111 runs in 609 times at bat, and totaled 77 runs batted in while committing 68 errors. The team batting average was .261.

Steeler pitchers were on the mound 153 innings. They struck out 123 enemy batters and had an earned run average of 2.79.

The school's baseball season was highlighted by the squad's 7-4 victory over Collinsville in the first-round of district competition, and a closely-fought contest with crosstown GCHS South in the second round.

North batters played South to a 3-3 deadlock in 12 innings before the contest was delayed because of darkness. Both teams took to the field at Wilson Park to resume play three days later, on May 16, with South emerging the victor.

Before an audience of 200 sports fans, Steeler Coach Robert Stegmeyer announced that senior Larry Petri has been chosen as the team's most valuable player.

The senior shortstop, who had lettered in the sport last year at GCHS (South), played in 22 games. In 76 times at bat he had 23 hits and scored 16 runs.

Petri was credited with 12 runs batted in and with having stolen 19 bases during the season. He had a batting average of .303.

Junior Harvey Breckner was cited by Stegmeyer for topping other members of the squad with a batting average of .361. He led the team in hits with 26, 72 times at bat in 22 games. Breckner scored 13 runs and batted in 16.

The lowest earned run average for a pitcher netted an award for junior hurler John Scott.

Scott pitched 35 and one-third innings in seven games, and in the process struck out 33 batters. His ERA was 1.98 and he had a won-lost record of 2-4. Scott hit safely 28 times and scored 17 runs in 129 times at the plate.

Steeler netmen, with first-year mentor John VanBuskirk at the helm, completed their first season competition on a winning note, posting an 8-7 overall record.

Senior Paul Cooke headed the singles players with a 10-5 performance. Sophomore Dave Haldeman was 6-9 and Senior John Foster 4-4.

The doubles teams of Junior Nick Poplichak-Sophomore Rich Hermes and Juniors Jim Harlan-Mike Haldeman tied for top honors, each with an 8-4 record.

Cooke, in district competition, was the only North player to advance past the first round.

The senior player won his first two rounds of singles action before bowing 6-2, 4-4, 1-4 in the semifinals to Bethalto's Mike Trooley.

Steeler team victories were against Weaslin of Trenton, East St. Louis Assumption, Madison, Jacksonville, Jerseyville, Triad and Roxana.

Track and field coach Harry Lang did not have a completely successful overall spring season, but under his tenure the first-year performers etched their names in the record books with individual skills and persistence.

Sophomore Bob Sampson pole vaulted his way to eight different first-place finishes and set a new record (14-1) to capture the event in the 20-school GCHS South Invitational.

Selected by his teammates as the school's most valuable field athlete, Sampson placed well in the Highland district meet and earned a ninth-place tie in the 1974 state track event.

Discus and shot put athlete Ed Opich was short one victory of tying Sampson for the most individual wins.

He had his best mark in discus throwing at the Belleville Mineral Area meet (154-5) in which he placed second.

Opich took top honors in shotput competition (48-6) at the Madison County meet.

Mark LaRose and Rick Damaree each earned four victories apiece on the season, LaRose in long jump and triple jump competition and Damaree in the high jump event.

The team's most valuable sprinter award recipient, Mike Douff, posted two wins—100-yard dash (10.8) and 440-yard run (53.5).

Sophomore Dave Kwiatkowski also was a two-time victor. He won the 120-yard high hurdles (9.3) and 70-yard high hurdles (9.0), both in the South Invitational.

Overall, the team's most outstanding performance was at the Madison County meet, where it placed fourth with 39 points, followed closely by its sixth-place showing on 36 points at the South Invitational meet.

Coach Russ Chappell, North's golf coach, told the Press-Record at the start of the season, "We are a young team but the players show the potential of being a great club."

The golfing Steelers showed that potential by posting a 6-10-1 record against some of the toughest, most experienced schools around, including a 169-188 victory over Edwardsville, the Southwestern Conference titlist and eventual state qualifier.

Led by the team's two top scorers, Tim Behrens (409) and Dave Dodson (292), the North squad also defeated Jerseyville, Trenton Weaslin twice and Lebanon in dual meets, and Lebanon and Wood River in a triangular battle.

The local squad emerged deadlocked at 175 with Cahokia for its only tie.

On the loss side of its record, North played its finest meet against GCHS South at Arlington Heights Golf Course.

South topped the Steelers by a slim 187-168 score.

Finishing fourth in its own district meet, North failed to advance to sectional competition because under Illinois High School Association rules only the first three teams qualified for advancement.

Individually, Behrens was the leader by virtue of having had the best scores in 10 district meets, his lowest being a three-over-par 39.

Dodson led the team seven times and also posted a three-over-par 39 in one meet.

Others taking scoring honors were Gary Eaker and Tom Graczy.

Demolition auto derby on June 22

Auto-Race Promotions of St. Louis is now accepting entries for a $1,000 purse demolition derby to be held Saturday, June 22, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at Tri-City Speedway, 5100 Nameoki Road.

In a demolition derby, drivers align their cars in front of the grandstands, and on a given signal smash and crash into opponents until only one auto remains capable of moving.

The last driver in action here will receive a trophy in addition to a $500 victory award.

Rules and entry blanks can be obtained at the ticket office at Tri-City Speedway on any regular race date.

An added attraction the same evening will be the International Daredevils and the Motorcycle Maniacs thrill shows.

Belleville Legionnaires defeat Venice-Madison

Belleville Post 58, trailing 2-1 in the second inning, took advantage of timely walks, hits and errors Monday to hand Venice-Madison Post 307 a 12-2 defeat.

The American Legion District 22 baseball contest was played at Belleville's Citizens Park.

"Let's face it," commented Coach Art Jovi, "We walked 11 batters and virtually handed Belleville runs on errors."

The hosts scored once in the opening inning and took command of the game in the second with four runs on two walks, two singles and a two-run triple by Rich Albrecht.

Winning pitcher Robert Hargis then held the local squad hitless for the remainder of the contest while his teammates added three runs in the third and four more in the sixth.

Post 307's only runs were recorded in the second inning. Bob Shipley singled, Steve McCunney walked and Kevin Werner's sacrifice bunt advanced the runners. Mark Greenwald reached base on a fielding error and a run scored. Another run scored when Greenwald attempted to steal second base. The catcher, trying to throw him out, threw the ball past the baseman and into centerfield.

Venice-Madison's only other hits were singles by Carl Turner and Ed Kowalczyk.

Hurler Jim Beaver was charged with the loss after being relieved in the fourth inning by Bud Prazama.

50-year reunion

The June 1924 graduating class of Granite City High School celebrated its 50th anniversary here with two reunion parties attended by 23 class members and 19 guests.

A dinner at Tempel's Smorgasbord opened the festivities and was also attended by Miss Mary Blackburn and Miss Mary Luther, both of St. Louis, teachers of this class and now retired.

The tables were decorated in gold with the numeral 50 as the main theme.

Class President Harold Thomas, also retired from the Granite City School District and now living in Sun City, Ariz., welcomed the guests and served as master of ceremonies.

The invocation was given by Marie Brummer Fulp of Wood River, vice-president, followed by a moment of silent prayer for deceased members.

A class poem was read by Marie Werthe Whittle and introductions were given by Elma Mortenson Hoover, both are of Granite City.

A "Do you remember questions about the 1924 graduation?" game was directed by Lillian Pittman Wahl of Decatur, and each member was asked to introduce guests and give a resume of his life.

Entertainment in the form of a magic show was presented by Dr. Leo Coleman, a class member, the retired Granite City dentist residing in Sun City, Ariz.

Others attending from out of town were Maxine Murphy Skinner, Rialto, Calif., Marcella Murphy Bischoff, Rocky Ridge, Mo.; John W. Johnson, San Clemente, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Judd, Wood River; Mrs. Harold Thomas, Sun City; Bernice Griffin, Indianapolis, Ind.; Ed Wahl, Decatur; Dr. and Mrs. (Esther Davis) Ray Sunderman, St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. (Opal Kenney) Fred Meyling, Maryville, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. (Frances McCormick) R. C. Davinroy, Virginia Crenshaw Moose and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Simich, all of the Belleville area.

Local residents were Alex Bearich, William Buene, Mr. and Mrs. (Thelma Dawson) Robert Ruppel, Edna Habekost Bickel, Mr. and Mrs. (Alice Tomm) Theodore Froender, Mr. and Mrs. (Helen Knufinke) Granville Collins, Evelyn Relleke Gavin, Marie Serfas Davidson, Marilyn Deatherage, Laura Deatherage, Walmer Brummer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stevens and Lillian Gaumer Chepley, a member of the January 1924

Cosmetologist training grant

The Granite City School of Beauty Culture, 1815 Edison Ave., has received a $70,000 federal grant to aid individuals in financing cosmetologist training, according to Earl Tucker, owner-operator of the school.

Tucker reported the grant makes aid available to anyone who is a high school graduate or has an equivalent certificate and is in need of assistance.

Information and application forms are available at the school for those interested in receiving a full or partial grant.

The present course requires 1,500 hours to be completed in not less than nine months at a cost of $500, according to Tucker.

Completed application forms are to be forwarded to Washington, D. C., for approval. The notices sent to the local training school.

The first Uniwah (Quad-Cities) District Webelos' father and son campout in Wilson Park was enjoyed by 111 boys and men.

Registration, setting up tents and a fun-filled campfire occupied Friday evening. Saturday was spent with games and a giant sized tug of war.

Webelos is the last stage in the Cub Scout program, when the young boy becomes acquainted with Boy Scout activities.

Cub Packs participating were Pack 122, sponsored by Wilson School PTA; Pack 24, Russell Johnson PTA; Pack 96, Maryville PTA; Pack 28, Parkview PTA; Pack 12, Niedringhaus PTA; Pack 107, Venice-Madison American Legion; Pack 141, Mitchell PTA; Pack 46, Nameoki PTA, and Pack 22, Frohardt PTA.

The Friday evening campfire was conducted by Eagle Scouts Martin Fiedler, Darin Giesle and the Eagle Patrol of Boy Scout Troop 7 which is sponsored by St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Flags to be on display tomorrow

Observance of Flag Day tomorrow is being encouraged by the Daughters of Union Veterans and other groups.

A spokesman for DUV Tent 90 commented today that "June 14, Flag Day, is especially meaningful. The Daughters of Union Veterans are endeavoring to remind all Americans that a rebirth of patriotism is needed to focus worldwide attention on the enduring values of our free society."

"Many heads of states and municipalities, along with other leaders of government, have issued proclamations calling upon citizens to render appropriate attention to National Flag Day."

"June 14 has been National Flag Day since 1916, when it was so designated by then President Woodrow Wilson."

"Daughters of Union Veterans proudly acknowledge and annually celebrate National Flag Day."

"The national, the state, the tents, as well as the individual members exhibit loyalty to the United States of America and its democratic principles through special programs and projects."

"Participate with the DUV. Wave your flag, the United States of America flag, on June 14."

$18,500 salary for dog control official

Dr. Carl Rogers, Highland veterinarian, was named Tuesday as Madison County administrator for the Illinois Animal Control Act, which requires payment of an extra $4 per dog inoculated against rabies.

The position was described as full-time, defined as 75 per cent of that until Dr. Rogers is able to dispose of his private veterinary practice.

A yearly salary of $18,500 was established by the Madison County Board at its June session Tuesday.

Paul Richard of Troy, chairman of the Animal Health Committee, reported a verbal agreement that the administrator will eliminate his private practice by Dec. 1, the start of the next county fiscal year.

Jack Frandsen of Alhambra, another County Board member, called to the front of the meeting room an 11-year-old boy who had suffered facial and eye cuts when bitten by a stray dog. He said the boy's parents have no legal recourse to seek reimbursement for the injury, even though the dog's owner was traced.

Frandsen was critical of "headline hunters and exhibitionists" who he said have been "harassing" the Animal Health Committee and urging dog spaying and humane treatment of animals disposed of at the county dog pound.

Economy problems discussed

Two major problems in the economy today are lack of leadership in the White House and inflation, according to Frank Skinner, senior vice-president of the First National Bank in St. Louis, who spoke at the Tuesday noon meeting of the Granite City Rotary Club in the YMCA.

Skinner said there are three

School bus bid ok'd

at Madison

The Madison Board of Education Tuesday evening accepted the bid of Granite Transportation, Inc., of Granite City, to provide bus transportation for the 1974-75 school year.

The cost to operate the five required buses amounts to $216 daily plus gasoline costs. This was the only bid submitted.

Bids for furnishing canned goods were received during the special board meeting from Kraft, Ed Ray, Sexton, Vita, Tarras, and Allen. The bids were referred to Mrs. Evelyn Holt, cafeteria director, for study and review of quality, water content, cost. She will make recommendations at the next meeting.

A general discussion was held on filling five custodian vacancies. The positions will be filled by July 1. Twenty persons have applied to date.

The next regular meeting of the board will be 7:30 p.m. Thursday, July 20, in the Wensel L. Brown building, 1707 Fourth St., Madison.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., June 13, 1974 Page 18

A prelude to the state championship meet will be a free style sectional tournament to be held at the GCHS South gymnasium on June 22.

Only class winners and runners-up from the sectional meet will earn the right to meet in state finals. Both the Cahokia and South tournaments have 10 a.m. starting times.

Any current high school student or 1974 graduate of any U. S. high school is eligible to enter, providing he has a current U. S. Wrestling Federation card.

Among those expected to compete at Cahokia and South High are participants in the first tournament, held during the weekend at SIUE's outdoor soccer field.

Summer wrestling practice

Granite City South wrestling coach William Schmitt is advising School District Nine matmen that the South High gym annex will be open four days a week, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., starting Monday, for any youth in grades 7-12 wishing to utilize the facilities for practice during the summer months.

Schmitt added that the wrestling staff of both Granite City high schools will supervise the activity.

Injury during cyclists' racing; McClure wins

Novice rider Guy McClure of Texas showed the experts the way to win at Tri-City Speedway during American Motorcycle Association races Tuesday evening.

McClure was sent by officials to the back of the pack at the start of the eighth heat race for jumping off the line before the green flag was displayed.

At the drop of the green, he powered his way through the group to grab the lead and was never headed all the way to the checkered flag.

Sitting side-by-side with national riders in the feature race lineup, the Texan repeated his heat race feat to lead fellow-Texas Dave Rush, Mike Kidd, Oklahoma's Randy Cleek and Californian John Hatley across the finish line.

Hayley, Kidd and Rick Hocking later finished first through third in the trophy dash. The three also captured their heat races.

Other heat race winners were St. Louisian Neil Keen, Dick Mann of California, Oklahoma's Phil McDonald and Joe Ridgeway of Georgia.

The race won by Keen was marred by a first-lap accident which hospitalized Clyde Beaton, St. Charles, Mo.

The 18-year-old racer fell when his cycle flipped, in the second turn of the quarter-mile oval. He was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was treated for abrasions to his chest, cuts to the nose and right hip, and a swollen left leg.

Beaton was admitted in fair condition after reporting pains in his head and neck.

Posting victories in semi-main events were Hocking, Kidd, Rush and Mike Ladd of Kentucky.

Many of the 82 riders who participated in the evening's program are expected to return to the local speedway next Tuesday to compete again, beginning at 7 p.m.

Basketball at 2 high schools

Granite City High School South will provide a summer-long program of basketball free play for School District Nine students in grades 7-12 beginning Monday, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m., and extending through Thursday of each week.

South joins North High in opening its gymnasium doors for the free activities. North began its service this week.

Students wishing to participate at either high school are being advised to wear proper attire for the sport. Shower facilities will not be available.

Jones captures sprint; stock cars race Friday

Forty-two of the nation's best known super sprint race car drivers were on hand last night to compete in the first of a series of four special sprint programs on the half-mile dirt oval at Tri-City Speedway. The victor was Bobby Jones of Danville.

Jones, a sprint track champion here several years ago when that type of auto racing was a weekly event at the local racing plant, turned a slow qualifying time of 24.47 seconds as compared to the 23.06 of the fastest qualifier, Bill Utz of Sedalia, Mo.

Starting in the eighth position of the 22-car field in the 30-lap main event, the barber turned racer took just seven laps to wrest second place away from Utz.

On the 18th lap, he powered his sprinter around Wood River's Larry Kirkpatrick, the leader, and ran away from the field. Utz finished second and Cliff Powell was third.

The race was marred on the 23rd lap by an accident in the first corner involving Jerry Camfield of Argenta and race favorite Chuck Amati of Marion.

Camfield climbed on top of the grandstand, the track was struck by Amati's sprinter. Amati was injured and taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Other victors were: Richard Poe, trophy dash; Utz, first heat; Jones, second heat; Ples Atkins, third heat; and Craig Bucklew, semi-main event. Sportsman point leader John Wollemer captured the feature race in his division. Dan Walsh and Gary Wallace, both of St. Louis, were heat race victors.

In addition to the regular racing program of late model and sportsman class stock cars tomorrow (7:30 p.m. time trials and 8:30 p.m. races), Tri-City Speedway will feature Doug Rose and his Green Mania Jet car, carrying an old auto with the jet flames.

'Poison Ivy' prevails

Omar Carruthers and his "Poison Ivy" Dodge topped a field of eight other funny cars this week to win everything in his class on the quarter-mile asphalt at St. Louis International Drag Raceway south of Madison.

Carruthers started his sweep by defeating the Texas-based "Buccaneer" in first-round action with an elapsed time of 7.34 seconds at more than 200 miles per hour.

He next was matched in semifinals against John Edd of Texas in what turned into a creep-crawl win. Carruthers took a blower belt at the starting line but decided to go ahead with the run against unfavorable odds. The Texas race car locked in reverse gear and Carruthers took the match at an unbelievable 47 miles per hour.

He then defeated the "Screaming Eagle" of Dion Stewart in 7.49 seconds at 198.68 miles per hour for the championship. The Freeman and Haller Vega posted a time of 9.313 to take post-stock honors. Pre-race favorite Fred Shafer of Granite City was eliminated in that class after losing his brakes.

HURT IN FALL
Joseph Patton, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Patton, 11, Briarcliff Drive, reportedly suffered a broken arm at 12:30 p.m. yesterday in a fall into an excavation at Briarcliff and Briarhaven Drives. The hole had been dug by the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co. to install a fire hydrant.

Olin to furnish metal for coins

Olin Corporation has received a $10-million contract to supply about 35-million pounds of Post-Bond clad metal to the United States Mint over the period of a year beginning July 1. This represents the Mint's entire requirements of clad metal from outside sources for the entire fiscal year.

The cupro-nickel clad copper will be used to make approximately $488,824,000 worth of dimes, quarters, half-dollars and dollar coins. Olin's Brass Group developed the Post-Bond clad metal process in 1965 after a worldwide silver shortage resulted in the elimination of silver dimes and quarters by Congress.

The clad metal will be produced at the Olin Works in East Alton, Ill., from copper and nickel supplied by the Mint.

National Steel to make tubing for oil and gas

National Steel Corp. will expand into the production of oil country tubular goods, Chairman George A. Stinson announced today in Pittsburgh. First production of welded oil well casing and tubing, line pipe and up-set tubing is expected in late 1975 from a new plant which will be built in the Southwest by a newly organized subsidiary of National Steel.

It will be headed by Donald P. Beattie, president of Bull Moose Tube Co., a wholly-owned subsidiary of National Steel. Bull Moose Tube operates a plant in Gerald, Mo., 60 miles southwest of here.

Final selection of the plant site has not yet been made, Chairman Stinson said, adding: "These products, which are necessary to produce and distribute petroleum and natural gas, are in critically short supply. This is a result of the energy shortage, which has raised production from existing wells and stimulated new domestic drilling."

"Although oil country tubular goods are completely new product line for National Steel—which has concentrated on light, flat-rolled and coated sheets and strip—we are attracted by the diversifications opportunity presented by so important a market," Stinson said.

Initial production will be at an annual rate greater than 100,000 tons. In full operation, the new plant will employ about 300 persons to produce these products:

Upset tubing, 2 through 4 inches O.D., in grades H-40, J-55 and N-80.

Oil well casing, 4.5 through 10.75 inches O.D. in the same grades.

Line pipe in small diameters.

Structural square tubing in 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 inches square and combination rectangles, through .375-inch wall thickness.

And merchant pipe and mechanical tubing in small quantities.

Most of the equipment has been ordered, including an 11-inch pipe mill with a Thermo Tool VT-300 electric resistance welder; a 24-inch stretch reduction mill and a Sela gas-fired normalizing furnace.

The plant will be equipped with high-speed carbide threading and coupling lines and hydrostatic and non-destructive testing equipment.

"We are optimistic about this further step in National Steel's expansion and diversification," Stinson said. "As well as contributing to an expanded supply of the steel products needed to help domestic energy production, we think it will help National Steel."

"It should improve our profitability—and that is urgently necessary if we shall be able to finance our Phase II expansion program, which aims at providing two million tons of entirely new primary steel capacity."

Changing traffic conditions require remedial steps by local governments

It is good that local municipal officials are giving thought this summer to some of the points raised at the June prayer breakfast. The discussion dealt with the condition and maintenance of streets, railroad crossings and shopping center parking lots; the routes designated for auto and truck traffic; and the congestion that has developed in Downtown Granite City, along Nameoki Road and at other Quad-City locations. Hazards and inconvenience are becoming prevalent, and it is not prompt consideration and remedial action. Some of the specifics are outlined in an article elsewhere on this page today.

Status reports are planned at the September breakfast, and if full or partial solutions are possible before then, they ought to be implemented immediately.

'Striking' escapade and punishment have become "Topic A" in community

Judging by the volume of public discussion and of letters we have received, "striking" and subsequent occurrences related to it have captured the attention of many Quad-Cityans.

A nude freshman boy ran through the Granite City High School South gymnasium during the 1974 May Day program given by physical education classes. He did so because of payments promised by other students. Instead of collecting, he was fined $100, to be worked out at $5 a day, and was expelled for the semester, requiring him to take three courses a second time.

School officials concluded that expulsion was proper because the next most severe penalty, a ten-day suspension, would not serve as a sufficient deterrent to such an escapade. Too mild a punishment, they reasoned, would encourage ignoring of rules and could be interpreted as official endorsement of the behavior. The school's attitude toward discipline.

Most citizens reacting to the events seem to disagree with the Board of Education and administrators. Since this is a democracy, public opinion is not wholly irrelevant. Nevertheless, it would appear that a case can be made for the action taken by officials.

Somebody once said that "the right to extend one's fist stops short of another person's nose." A captive audience of 2,500 was subjected to the prank without being consulted. While laughter was one of the responses, there literally were tears, embarrassment and anger as well, plus sympathy for the formally-attired senior girls who were being humiliated. The program being presented on stage was temporarily disrupted, and the mood of the evening was altered. The reaction of some in the audience was that "these girls have gone to school for 12 or 13 years leading up to this one big occasion. It isn't fair to them for someone to spoil it."

Society has come a long way since the Victorian era, and there is not only toleration of but appreciation for the human body, as attested to by motion picture attendance trends, magazine sales and the popularity of beach styles. The change in attitude probably is, on balance, a healthy sign.

It is perhaps understandable that a student might interpret the lax enforcement of rules on some campuses as meaning that "anything goes" anywhere. He has now found out that is not true. He realizes that any gain in personal image through being willing to "take a dare" can be more than offset by loss of credit and imposition of a fine.

Fortunately, he is not being publicly held up to ridicule and will be able to catch up with the remainder of his class scholastically by next summer; school authorities are "on his side," not against him, and began providing helpful advice to the family within moments after the decision on the penalty was reached. So, on psychological, is being placed upon him.

If there is any educational benefit to him, it is his new awareness that life can include setbacks, and that signals which may seem to authorize and justify flouting of fundamental rules of conduct "ain't necessarily so."

Area traffic concerns include shop centers, stop signs, crossings

Presentation on traffic concerns by the Rev. Roy Baugh at the June meeting of the Rotary-sponsored Prayer Breakfast Group:

How would you like to go back and live in the good old days? Things would be so different. We would not have to put up with the air conditioner getting our food cold. The cooks would not have to wonder if the gas stove would blow. We would be enjoying the cool breeze of a hot morning through the open window.

Shift from the mill would cover our windshields and the porch would have to be swept each morning. Our automobiles would have good heavy-gauge metal for fenders—backward, ugly, but strong and durable. The tires would be skinnier like a bicycle and perhaps we would get to jack up the back wheel to get it started.

It would be a much simpler life—nothing so complicated as living in a whirling, moving dervish of metropolitan life. But then we all know we live the way we want to. We like our electric golf cart, and want to be cool even if we must eat faster.

There is not a man who would trade his LTD for a Model T Ford, nor his Cadillac for a Pierce Arrow.

But then there is a price for everything. We live with an economy that gives us the best of life ever known to man. We have better food, better homes, warmer air, cooler, and more money for social life and good clothes than at any time in the history of the world.

Efficient life has brought problems that were unknown in the simple, idyllic days of yesteryear.

Few people ever worried about massive traffic jams that delayed their arrival at home in the evening by 30 or 40 minutes. Who would have cared about a stop sign or two for their horses and the few cars?

If someone had built a shopping center with all these parking places it would have been the oddest of the century. None would have questioned where and how trucks move through the city, for they were seldom seen.

But with the purpose of dialogue we have asked the honorable mayors of the Quad-Cities, the traffic committee of Granite City and representatives of the major shopping centers to attend our meeting.

It is not fair to put a Dean Martin roast on for honest discussion over questions that concern the average citizen of the Quad-Cities and are of concern to those named.

Many of the questions will be directed to Granite City, though not all, because Granite City has the largest congestions of automobiles, the preponderance of shopping centers and related problems.

However, we are interested in answers from Madison, Venice and Waterloo, and realize that we are really one community. Our destiny is bound together. Our cars are your cars and your cars are our cars. Our congestion, our dirt, our chukholes in the streets are yours and yours are ours.

Shopping centers represent a cultural change—shopping habits, concentrations of means, greater business yields. They also bring some questions to mind.

A who is responsible for repair and maintenance of the parking lots? Once the leases have been drawn and the merchant occupies his place of business, who maintains this lot and what about the quality of repairs?

Does the city regulate these businesses? Is there an agreement stipulating responsibility for the investor, the merchant, the city?

Each has gained something from the center. The city gains taxes; the merchant, profits; and the owner of the center, his gain.

When one passes from the front of Medicare to the lot assigned to Kroger, who is responsible for that series of holes?

Who redesign them? What about the area behind American National Bank? What about constant breaking up of pavement in front of the Tri-City?

Have these lots been built using sufficient building standards in relation to parking? When patching is done and the same holes reappear time after time, is the patching process adequate? Does the city regulate? Can it?

B. How is the traffic flow determined within a shopping center? Who establishes fire lanes? What are the rules concerning width of lanes and clearance of lanes?

Does it have jurisdiction? The recent rash of new buildings and increased volume in Nameoki Village has made this a dangerous and uncomfortable maze. It reminds one of going to the carnival and driving a dodgem-car.

What would speed control within this semi-private property? Do the police have jurisdiction? If not who has this jurisdiction?

Who is responsible for the general cleanliness of a shopping center? What plan is used to clean up after the American public brings money and leaves behind trash?

The sidewalks, parking lots, weeds in open spaces and near the streets are often deplorable. Is this covered by the lease? Are the store owners to police these areas?

Who cleans and why don't they? Turn now to traffic problems in the cities. While many questions seem related only to Granite City, the same questions and answers must be asked in the other cities, where the same problems will soon exist.

A. In the Quad-Cities we have a large number of trucks—very heavy trucks. For this we are glad, for these trucks mean commerce is flowing in and out of the city and that means jobs. But success always brings its problems.

Why is it necessary for trucks to have a seemingly unlimited privilege on all streets? Why have we established a clearly marked truck route for passage through Granite City, Madison, Venice, Pontoon Beach, etc.?

It would seem unsafe—for they sometimes drive too fast for conditions and have a heavy load, making fast stops almost impossible.

It would make traffic flow freely in the other parts of the cities where trucks do not clog the arteries connecting our four cities.

Is this oversight? Is it negligence? Is this something that has been tried and found ineffective?

B. What about stop signs? How do city councils go about taking down or putting up a stop sign?

Is this done according to engineering studies? Is it done by citizen request? The explanation is that it is an act of whim with some erected in Granite City without much time or thought.

A map in the Granite City Topics Study, with the cover letter stating it was completed in June 1973, has red marks that are not mistakes. They are stop signs.

This report says, "A review provides an indication of the extremely large number of stop signs in the city."

"It would appear that efforts have been made to stop traffic rather than provide for a circulatory system to move traffic."

"There appears to have been a very small percentage of stop signs relative to the number of stop signs, in that very few streets are through streets with very small percentages of voters eligible to vote."

Since that time, from statements in the Press-Record and comments made to me on my last visit to Granite City, there appears to be much unrest and jealousy on the School Board.

Since being on the board, Mr. Hall has made repeated attacks on Mr. Worthen and Mr. Stucke and has apparently been somewhat successful in dividing the board.

Due to the last School Board election, Mr. Hall made the statement in your April 11 edition that the local politicians are not interested in the interest in the Granite City school election.

What Mr. Hall failed to tell the citizens was that politicians—David Partney, former alderman Tom Boker, Committeeman Joe Kruger, and others—were backing his candidates.

Mr. Hall also stated he was backing certain candidates because of their direct opposition to the many political machine desires, but he failed to mention at least one.

Excitement is provided at hospital. I recently left St. Elizabeth Hospital after 10 days there of treatment, tests, etc., on the 6th floor.

I was hesitant going into the hospital. But I went in and soon started feeling better because of the excellent treatment I received from everyone up there.

I really felt good when I left and, of course, I had an exceptionally good doctor.

Striking a harmless rite of spring

To the Editor: The Granite City high school football team is an outrage.

For quite a while now, all over the country, the verdict of public opinion has been that this is one of the harmless rites of spring; something not to be taken too seriously, either.

So in cases where the strikers were caught, justice was tempered with mercy and the punishment was made to fit the crime.

But this didn't happen in Granite City. Instead, the School Board grimly set out to make an example of this young man.

The sidewalks, parking lots, weeds in open spaces and near the streets are often deplorable. Is this covered by the lease? Are the store owners to police these areas?

Who cleans and why don't they? Turn now to traffic problems in the cities. While many questions seem related only to Granite City, the same questions and answers must be asked in the other cities, where the same problems will soon exist.

boy, I don't know the boy or his family, but the severity of the punishment is an outrage.

Not only was a family, that probably can't afford it, hit with a $100 fine, but the boy was seriously injured for the semester.

He must now spend two summers, plus carry extra studies during a school year, to catch up on courses he has already completed, all except for the final examinations.

What are we trying to do? Can you imagine the boredom of sitting through those courses again? All this over a two-minute amateurish prank!

read in the June 6 Press-Record that the Granite City Board of Education found it necessary to expel the young man for his action.

It seems as if the young man has been punished excessively by a group of individuals who have overreacted to a boyish prank and have forgotten what it was like to be young.

I don't advocate such behavior at public events; however, I find it difficult to believe that the "tears, embarrassment and anger" at the incident could have been experienced by anyone but the young man himself.

If the School Board has any sense of fair play, it should reconsider the punishment and substitute something in the community service line this summer.

Let the boy take his exams. Let him take a more fitting punishment.

Let the School Board exercise some common sense. Their job is to help mold our children into good citizens, not to wreck and embitter them.

'New faces' theory buoyed Percy hopes

By KEN WATSON
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau

The Arkansas primary victory of Gov. Dale Gribble over U.S. Senator J. William Fulbright has brought a big boost in morale to Illinois supporters of the presidential bid of U.S. Sen. Charles H. Percy.

They contend that the big Bumpers triumph clearly reflects voters' desire for new faces on the national political scene.

Percy backers are quick to point out some similarities between the Bumpers win over Fulbright and Percy's rout by 422,302 votes of veteran Illinois Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas in 1966.

Like Fulbright, Douglas at that time was considered a major Senate figure. He had been elected to three successive terms by big margins and had a considerable national stature.

Like Bumpers, Percy chose to gamble. Instead of waiting for a second try for governor, having lost to Democrat Otto Kerner by 179,298 votes in the disastrous GOP year of 1964, Percy chose to take on Douglas next. By his surprise victory, he became a national political figure on his own.

Now the Percy supporters assert that what he accomplished on a statewide basis in 1966, he can do nationally and win the 1976 Republican Presidential nomination despite the odds against him. Bumpers, by his routing of Fulbright, has stimulated a wave of national speculation as to a potential 1976 Democratic nominee for Vice President, with even an occasional mention as a Presidential nominee.

The speculation centers around the "new faces in politics" theory. People believe that this must inevitably involve their man and increase the national exposure he so desperately needs.

If he is to become a serious contender. Although the Percy drive has been under way for about six months, he has failed to pick up much momentum in the national polls. As a result, his effort lacks the must-on-speed develop if he is to be taken seriously.

Percy has mapped a busy speaking schedule which takes him to about all parts of the nation. It is hoped that the emergence of Democrat Bumpers will also result in increased mention of Percy as a new-face Republican.

Bumpers will also result in increased mention of Percy as a new-face Republican. The big handicap of being faced by his own party. Democrats who may not be sold on Maschke's "Ted" Kennedy can cast about freely for new faces.

But regular Republicans appear to be increasingly sold on Vice President Gerald Ford as the 1976 candidate, regardless of whether he might advance to the Presidency before then. Percy can only hope that his political, legal and media face factored him so richly in the past, will continue to hold.

His basic strategy still centers on winning a huge home-state endorsement in the spring Illinois primary in 1976.

His long-chance shot at the nomination to Kennedy, the face factored him, and the Bumpers Arkansas victory is at least a welcome encouragement.

Pilot training for new Air Force Academy graduate

Peter R. Schocker, son of retired U. S. Army Sergeant First Class and Mrs. Melvin Schocker, 2206 Waterman Ave., Granite City, was commissioned a second lieutenant and awarded a bachelor of science degree upon graduation from the U. S. Air Force Academy at Colorado in early June.

LT. Schocker, who majored in astronautical engineering, has been selected for pilot training at Vance Air Force Base, Okla. While at the Academy, he received special recognition by being named to the Dean's List for academic excellence.

More than 70 per cent of the 800 members of this year's astronautical class—the 15th in the 19-year history of the academy—will go to pilot or navigator training. The remainder will pursue graduate degrees at universities throughout the country or be assigned to operational Air Force units.

2 hurt in mishap

Automobile driven by Lester E. Hester, 305 West Chain of Rocks Road, and Ellie M. Vleck, 21, collided at Nameki Road and Lindell Boulevard at 4:19 p.m. Monday, causing injury of 22-month-old Don Charles Vleck. The child was tested for bruises to his right side at St. Elizabeth Hospital, and was released. Ellie Vleck, in whose auto the child was a passenger, reported minor injuries. The Vleck family home is located in Collinsville and South Roxana. The other driver was not injured in the mishap.

Environmental solution in 1970s urged

Participants in the University Seminar at Edwardsville (USE) appeared to be in agreement in the summary session last week that the Seminar has "marshaled a diversified attack on environmental problems that are threatening the quality of life."

Dr. John S. Rendleman, president of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and USE moderator, said, "All of the schools within the university have brought their scholarly expertise and creative insights to a discussion of the topic, 'Shaping the Environment.' The participants have talked in language everyone can understand, and I'm pleased with the knowledge and concerns they have shared with us."

President Rendleman climaxed the final session of the five-month seminar with words of appreciation and the presentation of plaques to Presidential Scholars and faculty representatives of the eight SIUE schools which participated.

After receiving their plaques, the scholars and faculty expressed personal evaluations of the seminar. Presidential Scholar Gregory Lux of Granite City, a junior in the School of Social Sciences, apparently summed up the feeling of most of the participants when he said:

"All of the various presentations have served to point up two things —

"1. The problem of the environment is very serious and requires the finding of a solution in the '70s."

"2. The key to the solution is that you have to develop public opinion so that people can maintain an interest in the problem until a solution is reached, which unfortunately I do not feel we have been able to accomplish to this day."

Several of the speakers presented summary proposals for action.

Typical was a plea by Nicholas Joost, professor of English and representative of the School of Humanities, for "more international political cooperation to safeguard man's cultural heritage," and an admonishment to "become more involved in solving environmental problems in our own neighborhoods."

His thoughts were similar to those of Ronald Bruno, assistant professor of physics (School of Science and Technology), who said, "We are responsible for our environment, and we must exercise our power as citizens to maintain our environment."

Richard Keating, associate professor of biological sciences (School of Science and Technology), urged: "Now that we are more aware of the increasing scarcity of our resources, our beauty and our quality of life, we need to communicate these ideas to others."

Don F. McCabe, assistant professor of government and public affairs (School of Social Sciences), expressed fear that environmental concerns are a passing movement and that people outside the university are not concerned at all.

He warned that the nation in the next 10 to 15 years may be facing the need for "radical politics to solve radical problems."

Other USE Participants were: R. Buckminster Fuller, visiting professor and keynote speaker for the seminar; John A. McCall, professor of psychology, School of Education; John A. Richardson, professor of art and design, School of Fine Arts; Patricia Mell, instructor of nursing, and Sharon Merritt, assistant professor of nursing, School of Nursing; Henry Baich, associate professor of dental medicine, School of Dental Medicine; Robert E. Kohn, associate professor of economics, School of Business; and the following Presidential Scholars:

Edward B. Boden, Tower Lake Apartments, a psychology major; Kevin Johnson, Staunton, art history; Dan Tschann, Broese, nursing; Steve Conway, Granite City, dentistry; Audrey L. Akers, Reservoir Heights, a graduate assistant in English; Jane Brauer, Fairview Heights, mathematics; Claudia Kay Barnes, East St. Louis, a graduate assistant in biology; and Phillip Kessler, Bethalto, physics.

President Rendleman said he anticipates the seminar will be continued next year. A topic for next year's panel is still under consideration.

Agronomy Day Friday

By DAVE FISCHER
Agricultural advisor

Farmers and agribusinessmen can get up-to-date reports on crop production research conducted under cropping conditions similar to their own at the 1974 Brownstown Agronomy Day, Friday.

Wagon tours of the field research plots will start at 8:30 a.m. There will be continuous tours leaving every 10 to 15 minutes until noon.

The Brownstown Research Center is located east of Vandalia on Route 185.

Some of the crop and soils tour stops will include corn plots, corn-soybean disease monitoring plots. University of Illinois agronomists and county Extension advisers will discuss research and answer questions on crops, herbicides and tillage.

Also, this year visitors may bring questions, dying plants, unidentified weeds and insects to the "Trouble Shoot" tent. A group of experts will be on hand to try and identify the problem.

Herbicide damage to soybeans that are up has been observed in several fields in Madison County. Loro damage shows a browning of the edges of the leaves, or as dead spots on the leaves.

A few plants were killed in some fields. Plants that are not killed make complete recovery from Loro damage. Lasso damage shows as a cupping upward of the leaves and later stunting of plants.

The margin between good weed control and crop damage is very narrow with some herbicides. Tillage methods, time of the year, soil organic matter content, rainfall, and other factors influence the performance of herbicides.

Some soybeans planted just ahead of recent heavy rains may have trouble coming up. Don't be too quick to replant.

The question of the ability of soybeans to compensate for loss of stand has been studied by University of Illinois agronomists.

Six soybean plants per foot of row in 30-inch rows was considered a full stand and yielded 50 bushels per acre.

When the plants were thinned by hand to three plants per foot of row, the yield was the same — 50 bushels per acre.

Five 24-inch gaps in each 20 feet of row, again a 50 per cent stand reduction, resulted in a yield of 44 bushels per acre.

Livestock and dairyman may want to use a barn fly control program before the flies become too numerous. House flies and stable flies are the ones of concern.

Lions play at Arlington

Lions roamed the Arlington Golf Course for an afternoon. They had not escaped from the Shrine Circus, but were members of the Madison Lions, 47 strong, attending their annual golf day and steak fry.

A tie between Lions Paul Lunford and Dave Clark, with handicap scores of 70, resulted, and Emmett Pazzia came in next with 72. All three were receiving trophies.

The Peoria Handicap system was used. Top golfers on the par 72, 18-hole course, without a handicap, were Lions Al Hudzik, 82 scratch, Mayor Mike Sasyk, 90, and Christ Paschoff, 93.

The Lions held a dinner dance and installation of officers Saturday at the Polish Hall in Madison.

Installed for the coming year were: Andrew Economy, president; Gary Novich, first vice-president; Salvatore DiMura, second vice-president; James Riskovsky, third vice-president and secretary, and Matt Ozanich, treasurer.

Stable flies reduce beef or milk production by attacking the legs and bellies of animals where they siphon blood and also cause constant annoyance which decreases the efficiency of the animal. House flies cause little or no effect on production, but are a general nuisance.

Practice good sanitation by eliminating fly-breeding materials such as manure, wet hay and feed as often as possible.

Apply a barn spray to the point of run-off on the ceilings and walls of all livestock buildings. When spraying, remove all animals from the barns and cover feed and water troughs. Do not spray the milking room.

Insecticides, mixed with water, used as barn sprays to give three to four weeks of control are Cygon, Baytex, and Ravap. Follow recommendation rates on label.

Supplement good sanitation and barn sprays with fly bait material.

Barn foggers using insecticides like dichlorvos (Vapona) or naled (Dibrom) give a quick kill of flies during the fogging operation but the effect is not long lasting.

As normally used, fogging does not leave enough insecticide deposit on the animals to protect the cattle from flies when on pasture. Coarse sprays applied to the animals are best for this purpose.

WINNING PUTT. Lion Al Hudzik, city comptroller in Madison, led his fellow Lions at Arlington with an 82 scratch score. Lion Mayor Mike Sasyk was second with 90, and Christ Paschoff had a 93.

2nd consumer price index in '77

Beginning in April 1977, two consumer price indexes will be issued by the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The present Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers will be updated and continued.

A broader Consumer Price Index for Urban Households will be published.

Both indexes will be as good as or better than the present index and will incorporate improvements being developed by BLS as part of its CPI revision program, federal officials told the Press-Record this week.

The CPI for Wage Earners and Clerical Workers now covers about 45 per cent of the total population and is widely used for the escalation of wages under collective bargaining agreements.

The new CPI for Urban Households will cover about 80 per cent of the population and will provide a comprehensive measure of consumer price trends for the entire economy.

Julius Shiskin, commissioner of labor statistics, explained that the plan for producing two indexes was developed because the BLS is now convinced that a single index cannot fully meet the diverse needs of users in business, labor and government.

Spokesmen for organized labor have stressed that continuation of the CPI for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers is necessary for collective bargaining, noting that escalator agreements now cover more than 5 million union workers.

Trade union officers explain that the availability of this index for collective bargaining promotes industrial peace, and say that failure to continue the index would cause confusion and disrupt collective bargaining.

Commissioner Shiskin agrees with these views of organized labor and adds that "the need for the broader index is also compelling because it will provide a more comprehensive and representative measure of month-to-month price movements in the economy."

In testimony before a Senate subcommittee, Shiskin has pointed out that:

1. About 44 million persons, including Social Security beneficiaries and retired federal workers, are covered by escalation agreements, in addition to those covered under union agreements.

2. The Department of Agriculture escalates school lunch payments for 34 million school children in accord with changes in the CPI.

3. The official government "poverty threshold" is also escalated by the CPI.

"The expanding use of escalation agreements points to the need for an index covering more than urban wage earners and clerical workers," Shiskin said.

Production of two indexes rather than one will increase the cost of the Consumer Price Index program, and additional appropriations for this purpose will be sought from Congress.

BLS traditionally revises its Consumer Price Index about every 10 years in order to take account of changes in consumer buying habits. The revised indexes will include:

—A new "market basket" based on a survey of consumer expenditures for commodities and services.

—New weights reflecting the proportions of expenditures for food, fuel, medical services and other products people buy.

—And a new sample of stores where people buy, reflecting shifts in retail purchases, such as from central cities to suburbs and between retail stores and mail order houses.

Fire law proposed to aid unprotected areas

"The lack of fire protection in many areas of Madison County and Illinois has become a serious problem," state representative nominee Everett G. Steele of Glen Carbon said here this week.

"State legislation is urgently needed to provide fire protection for persons and property in unprotected areas, and to assure payment of fire districts."

"The recent stoppage of fire protection services in East Madison and in the Bend Road area emphasizes the urgency of this problem. A $75,000 fire near Cottage Hills within the past month was allowed to burn unattended."

"Within the past few days, the Bethalto fire department announced that it will no longer provide service to the Moro and Holiday Shores communities after 1976."

"I urge enactment of legislation which would fill the gap in such instances."

"The legislation I propose," Steele related, "would empower the state fire marshal's office to oversee and assign an emergency source of fire protection to all unprotected areas, until a permanent arrangement can be established."

"Further, such legislation would authorize the state fire marshal to guarantee and, where necessary, advance payments to those fire districts which respond to calls in unprotected areas where persons receiving aid have no insurance or are unable to pay.

"A state fire marshal's claim or lien would attach to such property benefited, until reimbursement to the state is made. Such fees would be sufficient to encourage areas to join or establish fire districts of their own."

"Most importantly, however, Steele contended, this proposal would provide protection services where the safety of life and property is at stake."

"Persons should not become the victims of arbitrary or jurisdictional decisions which place both life and property in jeopardy, and which foster undue criticism against those who serve the people in the firefighting profession."

"State help in this area is of urgent importance," he concluded. "I support enactment of legislation which would correct this problem and provide the services needed in unprotected areas."

Air Force has 77,882 openings

The Air Force has openings for 77,882 men and women in the fiscal year beginning July 1, according to officials at Headquarters U. S. Air Force Recruiting Service at Randolph Air Force Base, Tex.

Most openings—64,155—are for young men with no previous military experience. There are approximately 150 different job skills available.

There will be a significant increase for fiscal year 1975 in jobs for enlisted women. The fiscal year 1975 goal is 10,000, a 25 per cent increase over fiscal year 1974. Half the new women enlistees will be recruited for technical jobs such as jet engine mechanics, electricians, missile mechanics and heating systems specialists.

Those interested in earning while learning a skill may contact Sergeant Habbert at the Air Force Recruiting Office, 1204 Niedringhaus Ave., Granite City, or call 876-5225 for an appointment.

New special education roles for Wilson and Lake Schools

Assignment of all its educable mentally handicapped students to Wilson School in the 1974-75 year has been authorized by the Granite City Board of Education, with trainable pupils to be placed at Lake School.

The board was briefed on plans developed by Vasil Eftimoff, director of pupil personnel services of the Granite City school district, and Larry Dew and Stuart Mills, administrators of Madison County Special Education Region 1 in the Quad-Cities.

Dew is director and Mills is supervisor of special education. They cited progress in curriculum development and the use of "open court series" in EMH and learning disabilities instructional areas.

"The teachers are enthusiastic about the coordination and cooperation between programs. It is felt that by grouping and team-teaching we can enhance the quality of the program," the board was told.

The EMH program was described as being aided by reducing the age span within each class and by providing ability grouping and team instruction.

"Our original planning called for two identical geographic facilities within our school system," Eftimoff related.

"This is not proving feasible, by positive identification of our students."

"We recommend the consolidating of our educable mentally handicapped facilities to one school, Wilson. The principal has assured us of room space within the main complex."

"The ability to bring all EMH together will give us the opportunity to share equipment, team-teach, conduct ability placement and concentrate on transportation."

"The recommendation entails seven self-contained sections of EMH and a proposal for one resource room and teacher, all housed at Wilson School."

"This will open three classrooms at Lake School. We recommend the transfer of our:

"(1) Early childhood program from a Webster School portable room to Lake."

"(2) Trainable mentally handicapped (Washington portable room) to Lake."

"(3) Also establishment of a self-contained hard-core learning disabilities classroom."

"Other plans are to (A) move the socially maladjusted class from within Webster School to the portable room for self-contained efficiency and class control."

"(B) Consolidate the socially maladjusted class at Lake and Washington. Locate a socially maladjusted classroom at McKinley, be a new center; (C) establish a socially maladjusted class for Granite City High School South and Coolidge

Junior High."

As approved by the School Board, the 1974-75 special education program in the Granite City district will consist of the following:

The listing shows class, school, level or section, number of students presently identified, number of teachers and number of aides:

Early childhood, Lake, 1 and II, 9-9 pupils, 1 teacher, 1 aide.

Scuba class starts, students can enroll

A basic scuba diving course has started at the Tri-Cities Area YMCA with prospective students invited to contact the Y at 876-7200, or call 451-4625 and ask for Pat or Larry. The course will be taught on Wednesdays from 7 p.m. until 11 p.m.

Rex Waggoner, a PADI and MDC scuba instructor, will teach the class. After successful completion of seven week classroom and pool work and a minimum of two hours open water diving, students will be certified through the Professional Association of Diving Instructors (PADI) and the Midwest Diving Council (MDC).

Cost of the course will be $35 for Y members and $50 for non-members. The programs include use of all air fills, tanks, regulators, text books and the YMCA facilities for the duration of the instruction.

Mask, fins and snorkels are not included in the course fee, but may be obtained at a discount price from East Side Divers Supply on a delayed payment basis. Prospective students also may register at the supply firm located at 2750 Madison Ave.

Assisting in the course are members of the East Side Diving Club which was organized in Granite City on Oct. 26, 1973. The club now has a membership of 49 certified divers and an active mailing list of over 300 area divers.

The club was formed and is operated by active divers who "want to get out and go diving," according to Ron Kibort, dive master. Dives are organized on alternate weekends during the summer and on a less frequent basis during wintertime.

Membership is opened to all certified divers Kibort said, noting that former divers are being encouraged to join the group and become active in the sport again.

Upcoming events include a trip to Florida this month and a trip to the Bahamas on the club's 42-foot cabin cruiser which is docked in the Florida Keyes.

Dives are planned on the Current River and in various lakes in Missouri and Illinois. Twenty-five club members took part in a recent dive at Mine-La-Motte, Mo.

Kibort said that 12 club members were sworn in as members of the area's first County Underwater Recovery Team in a ceremony at the county civil defense office in Edwardsville. County Director Ted Todoroff of Granite City conducted the ceremony.

Official team members are Kibort, Debbie Holt, Glen Gates, Barbara Gates, Tim Schmidt, Steve Heidt, Ron Troland, Jack Justice, Jon Grams, Bob Berry, Greg Stafford and Willie Gilmore.

The divers are available on 24-hour call and receive no compensation for emergency work done for local governmental authorities, Kibort explained.

Club members also are engaged in mapping a cave in Monroe County, which was not known to exist until two years ago when Kibort, Rich Grizzard and Vance Weiss discovered the opening after a 44-foot underwater swim.

At the present time the club is working with the Rev. Whiteman of St. Henry's Prep School in Belleville in the mapping project. The priest is recognized as a fine amateur mapper and the task is expected to be completed in about two months.

Partee likely to be next Illinois Senate president

By KEN WATSON
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau

One of Illinois' most prominent state senators will be following the November election night returns with the greatest of interest—and he's not even a candidate.

But Chicago Democrat Cecil Partee, 51, probably has a greater stake in the state senate races than any of the candidates on the ballot.

Few Chicagoans have ever taken so keen an interest in Downstate Senate contests as in Partee in this extraordinary election year.

For the second time in 37 years, Democrats stand a good chance of winning control of the Illinois Senate. If they do, Partee is virtually certain to again be named president pro tem, a position he held briefly for two years following the Democratic triumph in 1970.

Not since Democratic Sen. George M. Maypole of Chicago was elected to the powerful and prestigious post in 1937 had a Democrat presided over the Senate.

Partee lost out, however, in early 1973 as Republicans regained control of the Senate in the 1972 anti-McGovern landslide.

But at that, they currently hold only a razor-thin, one-vote margin. Partee serves as Senate minority leader and has a good working relationship with Republican Senate President William C. Harris of Pontiac.

Half of the 50 Senate seats are up for election this year, with the Watergate tide still running high.

Democratic senators, Downstate as well as Chicagoans, were well pleased with Partee during his two previous years as president and would welcome him back.

strong, there are some Statehouse predictions that the Democrats could end up with a five-vote majority or even higher.

They are expected to make a far better showing than usual in Downstate districts and can probably regain several marginal districts in Chicago, lost as a result of the Nixon landslide two years ago.

Partee, long-recognized as one of the state's shrewdest politicians as well as an outstanding legislator, is typically leaving nothing to chance.

It was Partee as much as anyone who was responsible for the Democrats holding their first fund-raising dinner for Senate candidates. It was held at Springfield's Holiday Inn East last night, featuring the hottest current name in politics, newly-nominated U.S. Senate candidate and current governor Dan Bumpers of Arkansas.

Adding further class to the $30 affair was Delaware Sen. Joseph Biden, who became one of the youngest elected U.S. senators at 29 (sworn in after his 30th birthday).

It was a fitting coincidence that Partee is a native of Arkansas, having been born in Blytheville. He graduated from Tennessee Agricultural and Industrial State University in Nashville, and earned his law degree at Northwestern University.

It is taken for granted at the Illinois Capitol that if the Democrats do win back the Senate, Partee will be its president. This would be so even if Gov. Dan Walker, perhaps irritated by Partee's ties with Daley, might want someone else.

Illusions gone, but not the hope of achieving America's potential

Members of the class of 1974 of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville were told during the weekend that they have the opportunity to be "pioneers in a new post-Watergate world."

Marshall Flaum, a nationally known television documentary producer, was the commencement speaker as degrees were conferred on a record-breaking number of SIUE students.

The list of candidates included 1,496 for bachelor degrees and 370 for graduate degrees and specialist certificates, bringing to nearly 15,000 the number of degrees conferred by SIUE since the university's first class was graduated in 1858.

"Yours is a rare opportunity, class of '74—for now, when you venture forth to help make a new post-Watergate world, you may be truly pioneers," Flaum said.

Now, for all of us, continuing on after Watergate, there will be a chance for a new beginning, a new starting place."

Flaum said people of the U.S. have few illusions left after events of the last 10 years "culminating in Watergate. This can be positive and healthy," he said, "if the loss of those illusions does not leave us crippled by feelings of futility and frustration, immobilized by cynicism or despair."

Cynicism and feelings of futility and frustration are not a cure. But perhaps there are some things the past can tell us," the commencement speaker said.

"The darkest time of hope and affirmation was at despair." Comparing the past with the present, Flaum challenged the graduates to look at the present as "a new starting place" . . . a time that "can mark the birth of a new era in American life, as we—cleansed at last of our illusions by the full impact of Watergate—begin to emerge from its ashes, to embark on a new and revitalized struggle toward the full realization of our American potential."

Flaum received an honorary doctor of fine arts degree at the commencement program. Melvin Lockard of Matoon, a former member of the SIUE Board of Trustees, received an honorary doctor of laws degree.

A distinguished service award was presented to Albert Cassens of Edwardsville. The degrees and awards were conferred by Dr. John S. Rendleman, president of SIUE.

"It's an incredibly difficult battle that one day may see the conquest of meaningful art over tasteless trivia," he said.

Flaum said people are turning to nostalgia for reassurance for the future.

"In a nation beset by soaring inflation, political scandal and a general questioning of values, many Americans, uneasy with the present and fearful of the future, are now looking back to our nation's past, looking for comfort and a sense of security in the pleasures and values of simpler, less complicated times," he said.

"Unfortunately, nostalgia is not a cure. But perhaps there are some things the past can tell

Army enlistment program

The U. S. Army is offering cash bonuses of up to $2,500 to soldiers enlisting for four years in any one of 25 non-combat related job skills, local recruiter Tom Sparks announced today.

Fifteen job skills are open to both men and women. Ten job skills carry a bonus of $2,500 while the remaining 15 offer a cash bonus of $1,500, he said.

The bonus will be paid to non-prior service personnel (first time enlistees) upon successful completion of their job training school. Prior service personnel who already have a qualifying military occupational specialty (MOS) will receive the bonus upon assignment to their first permanent duty station.

Jobs open to both men and women meriting a $2,500 bonus are: NIKI test equipment repairman, fixed plant carrier equipment repairman, aircraft fire control repairman, and Pershing electrical-mechanical repairman.

Fields open to both men and women offering the $1,500 bonus are: radio teletype operator, HAWK Missile crewman, Pershing electronics material specialist, radio relay and carrier attendant, field general COMSEC repairman, dial system comsec repairman, dial central office repairman, Sheridan turret mechanic, missile tank turret mechanic, power generation equipment operator-mechanic, and ammunition storage and operations specialist.

Jobs open only to males which offer the $2,500 bonus are: combat engineer, Pershing missile crewman, Chaparral crewman, Vulcan crewman, Lance missile system repairman, and Shilleagh missile system repairman.

The criteria for enlistment in each job category will vary," Sparks said. "Furthermore, due to the technical nature of the jobs, higher aptitude scores are required. In general, each enlistee for the bonus must score 90 or higher in three aptitude areas."

Anyone desiring more information on the new Army bonus may contact Sgt. Sparks at the Army Recruiting Station, 2225 Niedringhaus Ave., Granite City, or call him at 876-5289.

The three day picnic is scheduled July 26, 27 and 28 and will be open to the public from 4 p.m. until midnight.

Deadline set for auto tags

Vehicle licenses purchased by Venice residents will increase in price from $3 to $8 after Saturday, Chief of Police Ralph Brawley warned today. In addition, motorists not displaying the license tags after that deadline will be subject to arrest and fines.

Licenses were due May 1, but the city council wanted to give drivers an opportunity to purchase the licenses before arrests for violations were ordered, Brawley said. The licenses start at $3 for passenger cars and range upward for trucks of varying weights.

Enrollment starts for EMT training

St. Elizabeth Hospital's Trauma Center will start its fifth Emergency Medical Technician Course on July 9, it was announced this week.

Enrollments are now being taken by Anthony P. Marquez, trauma and regional coordinator. Those interested may call St. Elizabeth Hospital at 878-2020, Extension 411 or 412. Marquez noted the Granite City instruction series to date has qualified over 100 emergency medical technicians.

The program is funded by the Illinois Department of Transportation under its Highway Safety Program and is affiliated with the Belleville Area College.

The course consists of 25 lessons and 10 hours of in-hospital training requiring a total of 61 hours. The first lesson is devoted to an overview of the Emergency Medical Technician's job, a description of the course and a review of anatomy and physiology.

In the subsequent lessons, subjects are covered on life-threatening emergencies, injuries, common medical emergencies, childbirth, problems of child patients, lifting and moving patients, environmental emergencies, extrication from automobiles and operational aspects of the Emergency Medical Technician's job and responsibilities.

Each lesson provides for application of skills taught in the class. Certain critical skills will be practiced repeatedly to ensure proficiency, Marquez said.

Cardiopulmonary resuscitation is practiced and evaluated in six different lessons of the course. In-hospital training and observation are recommended in areas such as the emergency room and trauma unit.

The course is recommended for all persons working within the health delivery system. Graduates have included personnel from hospitals, ambulance services, industrial safety, fire, police, nursing homes and first aid instructors. Marquez said the state of Illinois now has more than 4,000 qualified EMTs. This figure clearly distinguishes Illinois as the national leader in this endeavor, he pointed out.

Learning Center helps normal children to 'achieve'

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record
Staff Writer

What causes a child with average or above average intelligence to fall behind in school or display antisocial behavior?

The answer is not always simple, but Tom Miosfsky, director of the Learning Achievement Center, 1245 Madison Ave., Madison, feels he may have the answer for many of the parents asking the question.

Many children have difficulty with their school work and numerous everyday tasks because they have a perception problem, Miosfsky said.

Perception is the proper sorting of signals from the eyes, ears and muscles by the brain. If a child has not had enough opportunity to test and train any of these senses, he may experience difficulties in completing routine assignments, despite average intelligence, the director explained.

In such cases, he said, "school may rapidly become a center of anxieties and frustrations for them. Soon their expected success becomes overshadowed by failures and frustrations."

"They seem to run into a hurdle they can't jump. They often are unable to cope with reading and spelling, and mathematics seems to be at a standstill."

These children tend to hide their incompetency and embarrassment by funneling their energy into nonconstructive behavior, such as withdrawing or clowning," Miosfsky said.

Weakness in the motor muscular senses can lead to difficulty identifying letters or moving the eyes across a line of type, thus causing math and reading problems," he explained.

"At the Learning Achievement Center," he said, "we test skills backward until we determine where the problem begins. We then can treat the problem and rebuild from there."

He explained that children attending the Learning Achievement Center attend 10-week sessions from 8 to 8 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays.

A summer session, beginning June 17, will meet for eight weeks, Mondays through Thursdays, from 10 a.m. to noon.

Children, ages 5 to 13, are helped by Miosfsky, five other certified teachers and two teacher-aids.

Most classes have about 15 students, although up to 20 may register for any one session.

"The student-teacher ratio is about one-to-three and for therapeutic reading and math work, we strive for an individualized instruction on a one-to-one ratio where possible."

He terms the method used by the center the "perceptual motor plus technique."

The plus is that, in addition to attempting to correct perceptual motor skills, the staff instructs math, reading and other learning, always striving to convey the point that "learning can be fun."

Success in these areas also can help strengthen the child's self image, which may be low due to his inability to cope with simple tasks before his difficulties were identified.

"Each child has an individualized program. We pre-test each one, evaluate the tests and have a staff discussion on each case."

"There is no 'cook-book' method as far as dealing with problems because each child has a different problem," Miosfsky commented. After each session, post-tests are conducted and evaluated.

Once the basic learning difficulty has been identified, specific physical exercises and tasks, such as walking a balance beam while watching a spot on the wall, can be utilized to help the child separate the stimuli the brain receives into appropriate meanings.

"Our instructors help the child re-experience developmental patterns through procedures used to modify the child's attention level and prevent distractions through auditory control."

"Our final goal in our patterning process enables the child to think," Miosfsky said.

Working with him are: Assistant Director Charles Jackson, who specializes in reading difficulties; Tonye Ann Green, also a reading specialist; Debbie Ross, a psychomotor problem specialist; Cathy Kitch, a mathematics specialist; and Dorothy Gillis, a reading specialist.

All are certified teachers with special education training. Teacher-aides who work at the Learning Achievement Center are Donna Perucca and Beth Squires.

Miosfsky explained that a 10-week session, or eight-week summer session costs about $120. This, he estimates, comes to about $2.50 per hour.

Classes meet above Holy Trinity Hall, where six classrooms and a large activities room are utilized.

"We are not here to make a ton of money. We are here because we want to see the children grow," Miosfsky said.

He urged parents who feel their child may have a learning disability to contact him at 876-6421 during class times for an evaluation to determine whether the problems are perceptual in nature or are caused by other difficulties.

Water company facilities shown

The second in a series of three programs on the functions and services of the East St. Louis Interurban Water Co. was presented at last week's meeting of the Breakfast Kiwanis Club, held in Charlie's Restaurant.

Richard Neubauer, customer service superintendent, gave a slide presentation on the local water company facilities.

Robert Jackson, manager of the Granite City District, answered questions about the slides.

The final program this week will explain the cross connection system.

Variance hearings to reopen Monday

Hearings on a request by Granite City Steel for a variance to complete installation of pollution control equipment in its coke oven facilities are scheduled to reopen at 9 a.m. Monday in the Missouri Room of the University Center at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Hearings also are slated for Thursday, June 27, in the Center's Illinois Room, and Friday, June 28, in the Missouri Room at the SIUE Center.

The Illinois Pollution Control Board is conducting the hearings in which the company and the state are seeking approval of alternatives methods for reducing pollution emissions from coke oven batteries. The company to install a full hood over pushing sides of the coke ovens.

Plan research grants

Winners of the first University Research Scholar awards at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will be announced June 26. John Rodman, coordinator of the SIUE Office of Research and Projects, reports.

Since the original announcement of the program in March, it has been decided to make two awards instead of one.

A Junior Research Scholar will be selected from a group of six applicants who have received their terminal degree in the past six years. Seven other faculty members are in competition for the Senior Research Scholar Award.

The program is being sponsored by the Graduate School and the Schools of Business, Fine Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences and Sciences and Technology. Only members of the faculty of the sponsoring schools are eligible for the awards.

Rodman said each scholar selected will receive one-third released time, plus full funding of the project, not to exceed $12,000.

Applicants and the names of projects submitted for consideration are:

JUNIOR SCHOLAR:
Edward Hudlin, assistant professor of philosophy, and Wayne D. Santoni, assistant professor of history, "Montage and iconography: a critical analysis of the Russian cinema, the politics and aesthetic in the age of Eisenstein."

Patrick Argos, assistant professor of physics, "X-ray crystallography of significant molecules."

Panos Kokoropoulos, assistant professor of engineering, "Direct utilization of solar energy as auxiliary source of energy for individual dwellings."

Thoddi C. Kotiah, assistant professor of mathematics, "Approximations for queues with batch arrivals."

Theodore R. Frisbie, assistant professor of anthropology, and Disney G. Denny, assistant professor of anthropology, "The historical archaeology of Fort Russell, Edwardsville, Ill."

Robert E. Mendelson, assistant professor of earth science and planning, and Michael A. Quinn, research associate, both with the Center for Urban and Environmental Research and Services, "Policy, profits and the professional landlord: an examination of the political economy of rental housing in an older urban area."

SENIOR SCHOLAR:
Raymond J. Spahn, professor of foreign languages and literature, "Nineteenth century German travelers to Illinois."

Gordon R. Wood, professor of English, "A computer-assisted analysis of discourse styles in Ben Jonson's comedy, Volpone (1616)."

Jules Zanger, professor of English, "Literary form, slavery and society: an examination of abolitionist literature in the United States and Brazil."

Gopal Gankar, coordinator of Supplemental Instructional Programs, "Developmental studies of random vibrations of compound lifting rotors and vertical and short-takeoff-and-landing propellers in turbulence."

site of action for antimalarial drugs."

Joyce Aschenbrenner, assistant professor of anthropology, "Stress and patient-defined emergencies in emergency medical treatment."

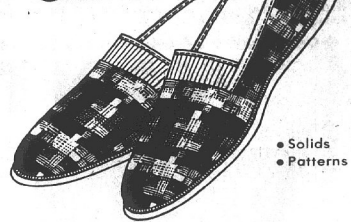

James J. Weingartner, associate professor of history, "The Malmsey massacre."

The proposals will be reviewed and evaluated by the School Research and Projects Review Committee, external consultants and, finally, the All-University Review Committee. Proposals not selected for awards will be forwarded to external agencies for funding consideration.

Parks Guard takes trophy

The Parks Guard, nationally famous Class "A" Exhibition Drill Team of Parks College in Cahokia, has received a first-place trophy for excellence in precision drill from the University of Missouri at Columbia.

The award, which is the Guard's fourth consecutive first-place honor, marks the end of a perfect drill season. Other awards were received from the University of Dayton in Dayton, Ohio, the University of Illinois in Champaign, and Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind.

The Guard, which performs at a variety of social, civic, and military functions, is comprised solely of students from the college. All Parks freshmen have the option to participate in initial guard instruction. Criteria for membership in the team include personal precision and co-ordination, scholastic average, and the interest of the participant.

Information about obtaining Guard performances for special occasions may be obtained by contacting Parks Guard, Parks College, Box 599, Cahokia, Ill., 62206, Information Officer.

The police and explorers will register bikes again in late August.

What do you like at parks?

If a visitor to one of Illinois' state parks or memorials particularly likes something there, the department of conservation would like to know about it.

And, if the visitor especially disliked something there, the department is ready and willing to hear about that, too.

The conservation department even wants visitors to make recommendations on ways to improve the parks.

To make it easier to inform department officials how the parks look from the users' view, postage-free printed postcards are being distributed to visitors at all state parks and memorials from now to the end of October.

The visitor will be asked to supply answers to only three questions: what he liked, what he disliked, and what improvements he would like to see.

Glenn Harper, in the education division of the conservation department, said the cards will be sent first to Director Tony Dean who will personally read every one before they are sent on for tabulation and evaluation by the division of parks and memorials. Monthly running totals will be kept of responses, which will make it easier and quicker to reach final conclusions after the last tardy cards have come in, Harper said.

Different parks and memorials will have different numbers of cards to distribute, he added, based on what percentage last year's total attendance was at each facility in relation to overall park and memorial attendance.

Preliminary scanning of some of the first cards to be returned, Harper said, seem to indicate that one man's delight is indeed another's despair.

A number of park users, for instance, said one of the things they like is that families can take their pets with them into the parks (though they must be leashed).

A number of park users complained because other park visitors take their family pets with them into the parks, even if they must be leashed.

It would seem to indicate that you can please some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time, but

If visitors will keep those cards and comments coming through, the department of conservation will have a much better idea of how to (possibly) please most of the people most of the time.

Park to sponsor Nashville trip

The Granite City Park District will sponsor its second weekend trip to Nashville, Tenn., in September and is accepting reservations now on a first come, first serve basis.

Harold Brown, park

superintendent, said last fall's "successful" with most reservations gone shortly after the newspaper announcements of the trip to the Grand Ole Opry will take Sept. 20 to Sept. 22. Cost of transportation by chartered bus is $18.50 per person.

Additional costs include $5 for an Opry ticket and between $22 and $26 for two nights' accommodation. Price of the rooms varies depending on the number of occupants, Brown explained.

Forty-five reservations have been secured, but the district has access to an additional 45 tickets, if needed, the park officer said. Residents of the Granite City Park District will be given preference in booking for the trip, he added.

Information may be obtained and reservations made at the Wilson Park office, or by calling 877-3069.

Some good news for the Class of '74.

Contrary to popular belief, good jobs aren't that hard to find these days. Not that is, if you know where to look.

And a better place to look than today's Army you won't find. Our confidence is based on these simple facts.

One. We have more jobs to offer the Class of '74 than anyone. Military or civilian. (About 70,000 openings.)

Two. The jobs are the kind you don't usually step in to right out of high school. Electronics, construction, computers, technical repair, communications and law enforcement are a few of the over 300 good, steady jobs we offer.

Three. Although the jobs we offer are considered "skilled labor," we don't require that you already possess the skill. We'll teach you everything you need to know in our training courses. (Experience will come on the job.)

Four. You choose the exact job training you want before you enlist. And, if you qualify, you'll get it. Guaranteed in writing.

That's our job offer to the Class of '74. We think it'll pay you to look into it.

After all, look what I did for the Class of '73.

Some financial considerations. From day one, you get a good salary, $326.10 a month (before deductions). With a raise to $363.30 in just four months. Meals, housing, free medical and dental care are provided. And you can save money shopping at Post Exchanges and Commissaries, so your take-home pay is really your take-home pay.

So where you want to go, do what you want to do, besides picking your job training, you pick your duty station. Europe, Alaska, Hawaii, and almost anywhere in the continental United States.

Your education doesn't stop after you join, program. You can earn anything from a high school diploma to a doctorate. Correspondence courses, university extensions, nearby colleges, and night classes are available worldwide. And we pay your tuition. When your enlistment is up, you'll be glad the G.I. Bill is still around. Paying up to 36 months financial aid for the college of your choice.

The most important benefit is the one you give yourself. By giving us 2 or 3 or 4 years of your time (as you wish), you'll be helping your Country, as well as yourself. Some people still think that's not important. If you do, too, call your Army representative. 876-5267.

Barbra LaCroix becomes Mrs. William Champion

Miss Barbra LaCroix and William Champion were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at 6 p.m. on June 8 at the Word of Life Tabernacle, 1200 Meridian Ave., by the Rev. Henry Crippen.

Mrs. Jean Keeling presided at the organ and also sang "Walk Through the World With Me" and "Abysses."

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Peggy Jarrett, 1425 Madison Ave. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Champion, reside at 1000 Reynolds Ave., Madison.

Given in marriage by her brother, Larry LaCroix, the bride chose a gown of white Chantilly lace made with a bouffant tiered skirt that extended into a chapel train.

Long tapered sleeves were set into a fitted bodice, fashioned with an oval scalloped neckline. She wore a formal length veil held in place with a pillbox headpiece embellished with pearls and crystal beads. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby breath.

Miss Kathy King served as maid of honor and Miss Debra Watkins was the bridesmaid. They were joined in matching full length dresses of white embroidered with sprigs of spring flowers. Their frocks were designed in an Empire style with long sleeves. Both wore white picture hats trimmed with blue streamers.

Dorothy Johnson, a nephew of the groom, was the ringbearer and escorted the flower girl, Valeria Valencia, the bride's niece. She wore a short dress in matching style to the adult attendants' gowns and she carried a basket of flowers.

Kenneth Mitchell served as the best man with Donald Kidd as the groomsmen. Wayne Watkins and John Thompson were candlelighters and Thomas Nance and Charles Jarrett acted as the ushers.

The bride is a student at Granite City High School South. Her husband was graduated from Madison High School and presently is employed at Chris Kaye Plastics.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jarrett, selected a full length gown of mint green double knit. The groom's mother, Mrs. Champion, appeared in a formal length pink knit.

The couple will reside in Madison.

Masquers present Fiddler this week

The Masquers, Inc., will present the musical version of "Fiddler on the Roof" this Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Minors Theater in Collinsville with performances set for 8:15 each evening.

Directing the musical is Mrs. Beverly Scroggins, a Granite City High School South speech teacher. She was named Outstanding Young Woman of America in 1971, Rosa Citizen of the Month in October 1973 and has worked in summer stock at Shepherd of the Hills Theatre in Branson, Mo.

Mrs. Scroggins also has been an active member of the Masquers, playing major roles in "Kiss Me Kate," "Carnival," "The Crucible," "A Thousand Clowns" and "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum."

The current production deals with the changes experienced by a Jewish village called Anatevka on the eve of the Russian Revolution. Sheldon Harnick wrote the lyrics and Jerry Robbins composed the score for the musical version of Joseph Stein's book.

The people of Anatevka live a very regimented life and thrive on tradition. However, with the sense of revolution in the air the traditions they live by are being broken down. The musical examines the adjustments to change in a humorous and touching manner. Mrs. Scroggins reported.

According to the director, producing "Fiddler on the Roof" involves some special problems. The show is "very musical and often requires the whole cast to dance while singing, she said. Therefore, special attention must be devoted to coordinating the movements of the cast with the music. Mrs. Scroggins explained.

Besides the regular cast the show will feature a group of dancers from the Russian Orthodox Church in Granite City who will perform authentic Russian dances.

Mrs. Margaret Pennell is involved in the show as choreographer, a position she has served for the Masquers "Show Me" and "Cabaret." She has also appeared in "The Crucible," "Rumplestiltskin," "Sound of Music," "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" and "Passions."

Mrs. Pennell is employed as secretary-treasurer of Holland Asphalt Paving. She is a member of the Granite City

Frozen food know-how keeps quality up

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County Extension Adviser—
Home Economics

So you've bought a freezer! Freezers were the hottest selling product in the appliance field in 1973—even though their availability was a major problem during the last six months.

Nationwide, more than one million chest models and more than 1.4 million uprights were sold last year.

If you are a new owner, or if you expect to buy a freezer in 1974, you will find that freezers do offer convenience and flexibility in your family food management.

You should place your freezer where there are no extremes in temperature, whether from winter cold or direct summer sunlight.

To make the best use of your freezer, be sure the temperature is kept at 0 degrees F. or lower.

Check the temperature with a freezer thermometer or an outdoor thermometer, or use this rule of thumb: If the freezer can't keep ice cream brick-solid, the temperature is above the recommended level.

Always date your food packages and be sure you use them within the recommended storage time. Longer storage is not dangerous, but flavors and textures begin to deteriorate.

When you date the package, also write down what is inside, the weight or amount of food (if that applies), and the number of servings.

When freezing meats, check for holes in either the trays or plastic. If there are no holes, you may freeze the meat in the store packaging for up to two weeks.

For longer storage, overwrap the store packaging with suitable freezer wrap to prevent "freezer burn."

What happens if food is partially thawed and you want to refreeze it? Most partially thawed foods refreeze safely if they still contain ice crystals and are still firm in the center.

Meat, fish and poultry thawed in the refrigerator (the best place to thaw food) and kept no more than one day may be refrozen. But don't refreeze thawed meat or poultry pies or casseroles, cream pies or vegetables.

To protect their sizeable investments in development, testing and marketing, frozen food packers advise against refreezing many of their products because quality can deteriorate.

This is especially true if the partially thawed products' temperature rose to 40 degrees F. internally while thawing.

Take 2 years of Army before college.

If you're a high school graduate ready to take full advantage of college this fall, by all means go to it. But if you think you'd get more out of college a little later, consider the benefits of 2 years of Army.

Guaranteed job training, or duty in Europe. With our 2-year enlistment, you can choose from a wide range of job-training courses, and if you qualify, have that training guaranteed in writing before you enlist.

Or, you can choose to serve in Europe. Either way, you get a starting salary of $326.10 a month before deductions, with a raise to $363.30 in just four months.

Enlist now, go 6 months later. This is like having your cake and eating it, too. With the Army's Delayed Entry Option, you can enlist today, get your decision out of the way and not have to report for up to six months, depending on the job-training you sign for.

If you'd like to try college while still in the Army, you can attend classes on post or at a nearby college. With the Army paying 75% of your tuition.

And when your enlistment's over, there's up to 36 months of financial assistance at the college of your choice.

Area agency on aging is formed

Iving Willard, director of the Illinois Department on Aging, is scheduled to attend a meeting this afternoon at SIUE to recognize establishment of the southwestern Illinois Area on Aging.

Humanities program grant

The Illinois Humanities Council yesterday announced the award of a grant of $7,530 to an Edwardsville-East St. Louis community group headed by Prof. William S. Hamrick of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The grant will be used to support a 20-week series of public humanities programs for elderly citizens of Madison and St. Clair counties.

Announcement of the award was made by Eldon L. Johnson, chairman of the Illinois Humanities Council.

Elderly citizens who enroll in the program, scheduled for the fall and winter of 1974-75 and to be held on the SIUE campus, will have the opportunity to deepen their historical understanding of the past 50 years and to become more informed and active participants in their local communities.

Each of the programs will be designed to increase the participants' awareness of key philosophical and historical problems which are relevant to senior citizens. Using public transportation financed by the grant, the elderly citizens will be transported to the SIUE campus to participate in the educational programs.

Dr. William J. Tudor, associate director of the SIUE Press, is chairman of the 31-member volunteer administrative council for the seven-county agency on aging.

Some of the subjects which the forums will explore include the cultural and psychological perspectives evolving from 1914-1920, the impact of the great depression on modern thought and values, and old age with affluence and old age with poverty.

In this program and all future programs eligible for support by the Illinois Humanities Council, the principal emphasis will be on the ways that the humanities—fields such as history, philosophy and literature—can bring a better understanding to issues of public policy.

Each of the programs will attempt to offer the resources of the humanities to help answer the questions of value that underlie most of the great decisions in contemporary society.

Guidelines for grant applications may be obtained by writing the Illinois Humanities Council, 314 South Neil St., Room 203, Champaign, Ill., 61820.

Madison band chosen for State Fair parade

A parade will start off the the 122nd Illinois State Fair in Springfield, and Madison High School's marching band has been chosen to help make it all happen.

Individually selected from a large number of marching bands throughout Illinois, the Madison High School Trojan Band will be among 40 select high school bands in the opening day parade Friday, Aug. 9, in downtown Springfield.

Beginning at 10 a.m., the mile-long parade also features a variety of special attractions. Celebrities, more than 40 floats, highly regarded drum and bugle corps, many equestrian riders and clowns will add to the festivities. Between 150 and 200 entries will participate in the two-hour-long parade.

It will be the largest parade ever held to open the Illinois State Fair. The fair will be held from Aug. 9 to 18.

He said the council, which is responsible for planning and reviewing programs dealing with services for older Americans, will discuss the location of a permanent office for the agency, with five or six staff employees.

Counties involved are Madison, St. Clair, Bond, Clinton, Monroe, Randolph and Washington.

Lewis C. Waters, a community consultant with the SIUE Center for Urban and Environmental Research and Services, is temporary director of the agency.

Dr. Tudor also is chairman of the SIUE Planning Committee on Aging, a group of faculty members who have organized to investigate the potential of the university to participate in both state and federal research and demonstration programs dealing with the aged.

He said one of the current goals of the committee is formation of an information data bank on the campus, containing pertinent data on the elderly population of the area and resources available to them.

Other plans include establishment of education programs for the elderly and possible development of an "interdisciplinary" proposal for a service program for the aging.

Weapon charge

Two area men were charged by police with unlawful use of a weapon after officers stopped an auto, in which they were occupants, at Niedringhaus and Madison avenues at 7:20 p.m. Monday during an investigation of an earlier incident.

Arrested and charged, after a switchblade knife allegedly was recovered from the vehicle, were Russell B. Hughes, 21, of Apt. 13, Garesche Homes, Madison, and Francis Lee King, 23, of 2805 Oregon Ave. The auto was searched with permission of the owner, police said.

Youths expand labor force to 24 million

The summer increase in the number of youths in the labor force is estimated at 3.8 million in 1974, about the same as in the past two years, the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics says.

Each summer, the school age labor force, 16 to 24 years old, increases sharply as students enter the job market for summer work—and as high school and college graduates, who were not in the labor force while attending school, take or look for regular jobs.

For July 1974, the labor force age 16-24 is estimated to reach 24.4 million, about 500,000 greater than in July 1973.

Students entering the labor force for summer work will total about 2.3 million or 60 percent of the total expected increase from April to July. The rest, 1.5 million, will be high school and college graduates entering the work force on a permanent basis.

Excluded from the latter estimate of graduates are 685,000 students who were already in the work force in April—most of them employed

May motor fuel tax allocated

Counties in Illinois have been allocated $3,055,231 except Cook County which has been allocated $2,800,628, as their share of motor fuel tax funds paid into the state treasury during May, according to the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Motor fuel tax funds are allocated monthly to the various counties in Illinois for their highway needs. The monies allocated are computed on the basis of motor vehicle registration fees. Cook County receives 11 per cent of the total funds available.

Madison County's allocation was $116,308. Illinois townships and road districts received $2,546,098 in motor fuel taxes, with $31,204 going to townships in Madison County.

COMMISSIONING CEREMONY. Roy N. Tobin, 1811 Rhodes St. Madison, is commissioned a second lieutenant in ceremonies conducted by the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps detachment at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Attaching a lieutenant's bar to Tobin's uniform is his wife, Michaelene.

MADISONIAN COMMISSIONED. Mrs. William J. McCunney of Madison attaches a second lieutenant's bar to the uniform of her son, William M. McCunney, 1825 Edwards Road. He was commissioned in ceremonies led by the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps detachment of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Use tax notices mailed

Notices of possible highway use tax delinquency are being mailed to truck and bus owners and users. Leon C. Green, IRS District Director, announced this week. The mailing is part of the service's nationwide Highway Use Tax Returns Compliance Program.

All taxpayers having delinquent returns to file should not wait to be contacted, but should file immediately to avoid additional penalties and interest, Green said.

The IRS has matched its highway use tax records with state truck registration records to identify potential nonfilers and under-reporters. During July, cases in which there is no response or insufficient response will be assigned to IRS district personnel who will begin contacting these truck owners.

Because highway use tax applies to vehicle users, not all owners are liable for the tax. For example, a lessee rather than a truck owner may be liable for the tax of local law requires the vehicle to be registered in the name of the lessee.

Any taxpayer who receives a notice of potential liability but is not liable for the tax should complete the appropriate sections of the notice and return it to the IRS.

The tax applies to trucks weighing 13,000 pounds or more, truck-trailers of 5,500 pounds or more, and buses that use the public highways. The amount of tax assessed depends on the number of axles and weights of vehicles.

IRS Publication 349, "Federal Use Tax on Trucks, Truck-Trailers and Buses," furnishes detailed information on the subject and is available free of charge at IRS offices.

Air Force cadets are commissioned

Twelve cadets of the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville were commissioned as second lieutenants in ceremonies during the weekend at the university.

The program in the Communications Building theater address by Lt. Col. James Eberwine, commanding officer of the AFROTC detachment at SIUE.

Col Eberwine is retiring from active duty July 1 after more than 21 years of service in the Air Force, including four years as commanding officer of the SIUE unit.

He urged the new officers to "set your goals higher than you expect to reach... and keep raising them as you progress."

"The past is history, and you can't change it," Col. Eberwine said. "But the future is yours, and you can change it. Tell yourself you want to excel, and remember the old adage, 'You get out of it what you put into it.'"

The new officers have begun their tours of active duty, generally either four or six years, serving in various responsibilities. Some of the class will begin advanced training as flying officers.

One of the new lieutenants, Gilbert D. Grimmert of the Tower Lake Apartments at SIUE has been granted a delay in reporting for active duty while he continues his academic studies in a master's degree program in city and regional planning. Ultimately, he will serve a six-year period of active duty.

All of the new officers have bachelor degrees, and they have been studying either as undergraduates or graduates at SIUE.

Two of the officers, John L. Fratey of Belleville and Leonard W. Starling of Nashville, were named distinguished graduates on the basis of their scholastic and military achievements as AFROTC cadets.

The oath of office was administered to the graduates by Lt. Col. Charles M. Johnson, commander of cadets and the new commanding officer of the detachment, effective July 1.

The significance of the commissioning document was read to the graduating class by Capt. Roger A. Bailey, adjunct assistant professor of aerospace studies at SIUE.

Other cadets who received their commissions are: Kim C. Barnett, Alton; Douglas J. Buechler, Tower Lakes Apts.

- REPAIRS - Colored Elastomeric Plastitex fills small cracks and nail holes; adheres tightly to the roof... bonds roofing granules, ties down shingles and, at the same time, gives a beautiful new look.
- INSULATES - The Plastitex coating forms a reflective Elastomeric shield over the entire roof. This helps keep interiors cooler in hot weather, warmer in winter... lowers air conditioning and heating costs. Remains elastic.
- PRESERVES - Moisture doesn't get through, so there's no deterioration of the roofing material. The coating resists the harmful effects of acids, fumes, salt air, sunlight and general weathering. Rejuvenated roofs gain additional years of life with less maintenance.
- SAVES - One coat of Colored Plastitex Elastomeric can save the owner many dollars. It can eliminate the cost of repair and replacement of building materials, yet extend the useful life of all types of structures.
- DECORATES - Attractive colored Liquid Plastitex gives uniform appearance to old, pecked surfaces... adds beauty and new life to dull, weathered roofs.

MRS. MICHAEL O. DAVIS, the former Miss Beverly Kay Henderson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Henderson, 2019 Lindell Blvd. Her wedding took place at Hope Lutheran Church.

Davis-Henderson nuptials at Hope Lutheran Church

Miss Beverly Kay Henderson became the bride of Michael Owen Davis in a candlelight setting on June 8 at Hope Lutheran Church.

White summer flowers and greenery adorned the altar for the double ring ceremony performed at 7 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. David Fielding.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Henderson, 2019 Lindell Blvd. Parents of the groom are Mrs. Lee Gorrell and Owen Davis Jr., both of Granite City.

Soloist, Mrs. John Karbarski, sang "The Wedding Song" and "Nicolene Creed." Paul Szymkowski Jr., of Dolton, Ill., presided at the organ and Handel, "Jesus Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach and "Fugue in C Major" by Bach.

Acolytes were Craig and Wayne Soehlin. Mr. Henderson escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She chose an ivory sateen lace gown, ornately trimmed with white cotton Venice lace.

Rows of tiny lace encircled the high neckline which was accented with lace motifs applied at the shoulders. An identical trim was repeated on the skirt that swept into a chapel train and narrow lace marked the Empire waistline and edged the hemline.

The sheer sleeves were enhanced with the decorative lace accents from the elbows to the wrists.

She wore a white Venice lace headpiece to secure an elbow length veil of ivory illusion, enhanced with white Venice lace, and she carried an offside cascade bouquet of white roses and baby breath.

Honor attendant Joni Renee Beemer, a cousin of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Lynn Davis, a sister of the groom and Mrs. Peggy Hotsen, were dressed alike in long frocks of sky blue voile over silk.

They held colonial bouquets of white pom poms and blue carnations.

The groom chose Jack LaPere as his best man. Terry Balsar and Tony Wiehardt were groomsmen and John J. Kudelka and Gene Hudson served as ushers.

Approximately 500 guests attended a reception given immediately following the service at Croatian Home in Madison.

A rehearsal dinner was given at the Officers Club at the Granite City Army Installation by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gorrell and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Davis Jr.

Mrs. Henderson, mother of the bride, selected a turquoise full length dress and jacket ensemble. The groom's mother, Mrs. Gorrell, was attired in a long pink knit dress complemented with a matching jacket. His step-mother, Mrs. Davis, wore a formal length apricot knit gown. Each wore a white cymbidium orchid.

After a wedding trip to Sarasota, Fla., the newly married couple will reside in Granite City.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School. The bride is a senior student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville where she is majoring in English literature.

Mr. Davis is employed as an assistant manager at the Tri-City Grocery Store in Lisle, Ill.

GRANTMASTER RADIAL TIRE GUARANTEE

1. 40,000 MILE GUARANTEE—Every new Grant radial tire is guaranteed by the W. T. Grant Company to give its purchaser 40,000 miles of tread wear if used on the vehicle on which it was originally installed, in normal highway non commercial service. If the tread wears down to the 2/32nds" tread depth indicator before delivering 40,000 miles of tread wear, any participating W. T. Grant Store throughout the United States will replace the tire with an equivalent new tire on a pro rata mileage basis, charging the purchaser only for the mileage actually received.

Proper tire care is necessary to obtain maximum mileage from your radial tires. Your mileage guarantee is contingent upon taking your tires into a Grant store for free inspection and possible rotation every 5,000 miles and the proper completion of your mileage record by the adjusting store in case of a claim under this guarantee.

2. Tread Life Guarantee Against Road Hazards We guarantee all Grantmaster tires against failures from all normal road hazards for the life of the tread with the exception of: ordinary nail punctures, fire, theft, front-end mis-alignment, under-inflation, over-inflation and running flat.

3. Tread Life Guarantee Against Defects We guarantee the Grantmaster tires, against all defects of material and workmanship, for the life of the tread. Basis of Adjustment: Should your Grantmaster tire require adjustment under Section 1 or 2 of the Guarantee, please return it to Grants and we will replace it by giving you a proportionate allowance for the unused tread, based on the current selling price, including Federal Excise Tax.

This guarantee covers tires in passenger car service only. Passenger car tires used in commercial service reduce the guarantee period by 50%.
